Masked Bandit Sticks Up Bank At College Park

Gunman Flees With $23,130, Fires One Shot

COLLEGE PARK, Md., June 12 (P)—A masked man robbed the Suburban Trust Co. branch bank here of $23,130 today and escaped by auto after firing one shot at would-be pursuers.

The amount of money taken was reported by the bank and by FBI agents who entered the case immediately. The same bank had been robbed of about $60,000 last December.

William R. Reading, manager of the bank, said that as far as he knew no one was injured when the man fired a shot at a truck which attempted to block his escape.

Reading said the man, about 5 feet 5 inches tall and wearing a mask, entered the bank just about closing time (2 p.m. EDT), jumped over the counter, and scooped into a bag he was carrying all the loose money in sight.

FBI Ropes Off Bank

Reading said no estimate had been made of the amount of money stolen since, he said, FBI agents had entered the case immediately and roped off the bank to search for fingerprints.

The bank manager said that as far as bank employees knew, just one shot had been fired outside the bank and that no one was hurt. He said that while in the bank, the holdup man brandished a .45 pistol.

Miss Alice Bennett, a bank employee, said the bandit climbed over the teller's counter of Raymond Lent, 21. Four other tellers were behind the counter at the time.

Getaway Car Reported Stolen

The holdup-man told them to keep back and put the money in a paper sack.

He then fled in a car which one initial report said had been stolen last night from a street several miles away.

A police lookout described the bandit as about 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighing 140 pounds and approximately 26 years old. He was said to have been wearing sunglasses with a handkerchief over the lower part of his face. Police said he was either a Negro or deeply tanned white man.

Much-Married Follies Girl Dies

NEW YORK, June 12 (INS)—Peggy Hopkins Joyce, much-married follies girl, died at 10:25 p. m. (EDT) tonight in New York's Memorial Hospital of throat cancer.

Her husband, Andrew Meyer, was at her bedside at the time of her death.

Mine Blast Damages Oil Tanker Off Suez

SUEZ, Egypt, June 12 (P)—The 20,235-ton Liberian tanker World Jory touched off an explosive sea mine at the entrance of Suez Harbor today and was badly damaged.

Loaded with 30,000 tons of crude oil from the Persian Gulf for Europe, the ship was heading for northbound transit through the Suez Canal. The canal was not affected.

The mine apparently had exploded the sweeping operations that preceded the recent reopening of the canal after it had been blockaded during the British-French invasion last November.

Cancer Kills Jimmy Dorsey Less Than Seven Months After Death Of Tommy

NEW YORK, June 12 (P)—Cancer killed bandleader Jimmy Dorsey today, less than seven months after the death of his brother, Tommy. Thus vanished from the American scene one of the great combinations of the jazz age.

Jimmy was 53, Tommy 51 when he accidentally choked to death in his sleep last Nov. 26 at his Connecticut home.

The brothers came out of the Pennsylvania coal fields in the 1920s to set American feet tapping to the sentimental beat of their music. Jimmy played the clarinet, Tommy the trombone.

They broke up their band and went their separate ways in 1935 after a heated dispute over artistic style. It was not until 18 years later that they were reunited on the same bandstand.

CONFIRMED — The French National Assembly early today confirmed Maurice Bourges-Maunoury, 42, shown above being interviewed by newsmen, as premier, ending a three-week political crisis.

The new premier is a member of the Radical-Socialist Party, which in France stands for moderation.

U.S. Denounces Soviet Tactics In Middle East

WASHINGTON, June 12 (P)—The United States today accused Russia of Middle East intervention which combines threats, subversion and pious talk of peace.

If Russia really wants to pacify the Middle East, the United States suggested, "It could do so by working constructively with the United Nations for the solution of fundamental problems in the area, among which the Arab-Israeli dispute is outstanding."

Soviet Idea Rejected

A U.S. note was made public by the State Department after its delivery in Moscow yesterday to the Soviet Foreign Ministry. Parallel British and French notes also were delivered.

They were in reply to a Russian proposal of last April 19 that the Big Four nations issue a declaration condemning the use of force in settling Middle East disputes.

The Russian idea was rejected as "unnecessary."

The American reply said U.S. policy long had been to swear off the use of force in settling all international problems. Indeed, it said, Russia presumably agreed to that policy when it joined the United Nations since it is embodied in the U.N. charter.

Note Chides Russia

The U.S. note said "loyal implementation" is indicated, not simply another declaration.

The American message chided Russia for using force to quell last fall's revolt in Communist Hungary. It also noted Russia has launched a "campaign of threat and intimidation" at nations bordering on Russia who have joined in mutual defense, such as the Atlantic Alliance and Baghdad Pact.

Jordan Charges Plot By Ousted Egyptian

AMMAN, Jordan, Thursday, June 13 (P)—Jordan officially accused an ousted Egyptian military attaché today of conspiring to assassinate members of the royal family and other Jordan officials.

An official statement also announced Jordan is studying "what measures to take in retaliation for unfriendly action" by Egypt in forcing the recall of Jordan's ambassador to Cairo.

The ousted Egyptian officer is Fuad Hilla. He was recalled by Egypt at Jordan's request after an initial accusation he was plotting against Jordan's security.

In retaliation, Egypt asked for the recall of Jordanian Ambassador Abdul Moneim Rifai, former Jordanian ambassador to Washington.

France Gets New Premier

Middle-Roader Is Confirmed By 240-194 Vote

PARIS, Thursday, June 13 (P)—The French National Assembly early today confirmed Maurice Bourges-Maunoury, 42-year-old middle-roader, as premier.

The action ended a three-week political crisis.

The new Premier is a member of the Radical - Socialist party, which in France stands for moderation.

The official vote was 240-194. This was short of the current absolute majority figure of 298 but was enough to put him in office.

Bourges-Maunoury is the nation's youngest premier since 1883. The Assembly also confirmed his coalition Cabinet of 13 other ministers, including Christian Pineau as foreign minister and Robert Lacoste as minister for Algerian affairs, both holdovers from the Guy Mollet government.

Popular Republicans Balk

A last-minute decision of the Popular Republicans, a slightly left-of-center Catholic party, to abstain cut into Bourges-Maunoury's expected support.

Affirmative votes came mostly from his own Radical - Socialist party, the Socialists and a large segment of the right-of-center Independent Republicans.

The Independent Republicans, whose opposition toppled the Mollet Cabinet on a fiscal issue last month, were apparently won over by the new Premier's record as defense minister under Mollet and by his choice for finance minister, 37-year-old Felix Gaillard of the Radical-Socialist group, a recognized economic expert.

Reds Vote "No"

The Communists, as expected, voted solidly against Bourges-Maunoury.

Bourges-Maunoury had appeared for Assembly confirmation on a program of reform in embattled Algeria and austerity at home.

He held fourth hope of quelling the Algerian rebellion with large-scale grants of political autonomy in local units and warned the French they must tighten their belts for at least 18 months to stabilize France's foreign trade position.

Paratroopers Patrol Algiers

ALGIERS, June 12 (P)—Parachute troops patrolled Algiers tonight to guard against revival of mob action by enraged Frenchmen on the city's Arabs. The toll of bloody disorders yesterday was estimated at 12 killed and 100 injured.

The city settled back to something like a semblance of order this morning but a 9 p.m. curfew remained in force.

The troops—frequently criticized in the past for their handling of Arab rebels—were praised now for having been the only force that saved the Arab population here from further violence. They rescued several Arabs from the mobs.

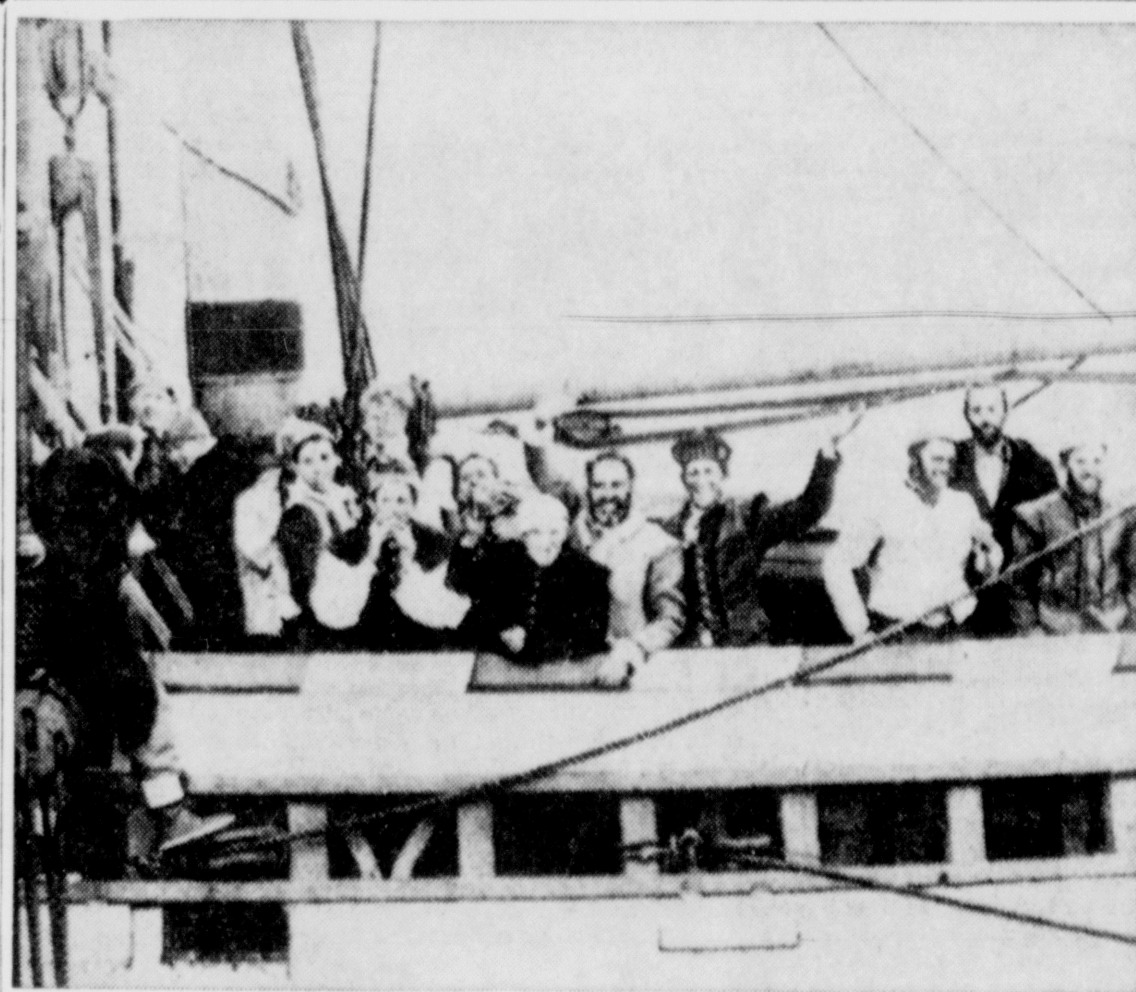

The police announced that, of 200 persons arrested, only four are being held. All those detained are of European extraction.

The riots stemmed from anger over a Sunday bombing, attributed to an Arab steward, that killed eight French and wounded 83 in an Algiers dance hall.

Warships Of 18 Nations Saluted In Great Review

ABOARD MISSILE CRUISER CANBERRA, June 12 (P)—Eighteen nations showed a mighty sample of seapower today, their men of war standing in an historic international naval review at Hampton Roads, Va.

High-ranking officials and diplomats watched the big naval show, staged to help celebrate the 350th anniversary of the first permanent English settlement in the new world, at Jamestown, Va.

It was the first such naval review in the United States in half a century—a spectacle that drew tens of thousands of onlookers.

Wilson Aboard Canberra

Secretary of Defense Wilson and fellow officials were aboard the Canberra which joined two other Navy cruisers in steaming slowly, at seven knots, down the 14-mile-long, double line of warships.

The ships riding at anchor stretched outward through Hampton Roads from the Norfolk Naval Base, their seaward ends lost from sight in the blue haze of a hot afternoon.

As the review ships started down the line a simultaneous salute thundered out from the guns of the ships—red flashes and white smoke licking out from muzzles.

Over the afterdeck of the Canberra poised slim, bright green anti-aircraft missiles—symbolic of protection for the surface fleet in an era of jet warplanes. Overhead circled and wheeled helicopters, balloons and airplanes.

Windjammer Saluted

The Canberra steamed slowly on down the line, past today's electronic-brained warships.

Off to port was the USS Saratoga, newest and mightiest flat-top of any navy.

Here was a sight seldom seen—perhaps to be seen many years longer—a tall-masted white-hulled windjammer. Her crew manned the yardarms, high aloft on the square sail rig of the brigantine schooner.

The Canberra continued on, saluted by each ship of many navies—114 of them. Thirty-three were foreign, 81 American. As each foreign ship was passed, the Canberra's band played the national anthem of that country.

Doctor Draft Bill Sent To President

WASHINGTON, June 12 (P)—Congress sent to the White House today a bill to continue the drafting of doctors for the armed services for another two years.

Senate approval by voice vote completed legislative action on the measure, a revised form of the present doctors draft.

The Senate Armed Services Committee, in a report to the Senate, said a main feature of the new measure provides for induction up to age 35, in place of the present age 31. It also would authorize the President to call doctor and dentist reserves up to age 35 for two years of active duty if they have not already served at least one year in the armed forces.

The present doctor draft law expires at midnight June 30.

Norstad Says NATO Now Has Capability To Destroy Russia

WASHINGTON, June 12 (P)—Top-level military testimony made public today holds that Russia faces sure and "absolute" destruction from the air if she launches an attack on the West.

Gen. Lauris Norstad, commander of North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces, said NATO now is capable of "destroying anything that is of military significance in Russia at the present time."

Norstad said, too: "I believe that this is a capability we can continue to have 5 years from now and 10 years from now."

The American commander of NATO gave his views in recent testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the administration's foreign aid bill. The testimony was published today with some portions blacked out for security reasons.

Norstad said the West can strike at the Soviet Union from 250 U.S. air bases and 150 NATO airfields. This doesn't mean a total of 400 bases, he explained, because the 250 figure includes some NATO fields manned by U.S. forces.

But in any case, he said, Western striking power is so great and so dispersed as to pose "a military problem to the Russians that is very serious and very difficult to solve"—in fact, an insoluble problem.

Four Persons Killed In Airplane Crash

BROKEN BOW, Okla., June 12 (INS)—Four persons were killed tonight when a private, four-seater plane crashed and burned east of Broken Bow in southwestern Oklahoma.

Oklahoma State Police said immediate identification was difficult because of the burned and battered condition of the bodies. The plane was believed to have taken off from Harrison, Ark., where a craft was reported missing.

Mayflower II Towed Last Short Leg Of 53-Day Trip

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., June 12 (P)—Robust Cmdr. Alan Villers, who has spent most of his 54 years on the wind's highway, brought Mayflower II to port today after sailing the replica of the historic Pilgrim bark over 5,000 miles of the western ocean in 53 days.

Urgency forced him to take a tow line for the last short leg of the voyage and the soul of the famed master of windjammers must have been sorely tried.

Tonight Mayflower swung to a mooring buoy in Provincetown Harbor, where the original rested after her long and wearing voyage of 66 days back in 1620.

Villers said he would leave at 5:30 a.m. EDT, tomorrow for Plymouth, 24 miles across Cape Cod Bay.

Navy Reports Light Damage To One Plane

Peiping Charges Invasion Of Coastal Waters By Carrier

HONG KONG, Thursday, June 13 (P)—Red China said today planes from the U.S. aircraft carrier Hornet flew scores of sorties over China waters and were fired upon by Communist batteries.

One plane was hit and flew southward trailing smoke, a Peiping broadcast announced, and two F84 Thunderjets manned by Nationalist China pilots were shot down in the same area—off Swatow—about 40 minutes earlier.

In Washington, the U.S. Navy said one of its Hornet-based planes was fired upon by Communist anti-aircraft batteries about eight miles off the China coast while on a "routine training flight."

The plane received minor damage, the Navy said, but returned safely to the carrier and no one was hurt. There was no mention of the United States returning the fire, or of the type plane involved.

Navy Revises Timing

The Navy said in Washington that its reports from the Formosa patrol referred to the situation as an incident and that the carrier and its escorting ships continued with the training exercise under way when the incident took place.

Peiping placed the time of the sorties at from 12:33 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday (11:30 p.m. EST Tuesday to 7:30 a.m. EST Wednesday). It said the Hornet planes in 23 groups flew 66 sorties on intrusions into Chinese territorial waters.

The Navy first said the plane was hit about noon EST Tuesday but later revised its timing to say it took place about 1 p.m. southeast China coast time, Wednesday, equivalent of Tuesday midnight EST.

In answer to questions the Navy spokesman in Washington clarified the Navy statement by saying the eight-mile distance was based on an approximate average line, using prominent features of the coast landscape as fixing points.

The Chinese coast along the stretch from Swatow to Amoy is broken by capes, islands and inlets, making exact measurements of the distance from the coastline proper virtually impossible, particularly to the pilot of a jet aircraft.

U. S. Recognizes 3-Mile Limit

The spokesman said the United States recognizes the three-mile limit in international waters but instructs all surface and aircraft to keep well clear of territorial waters and air space unless previous diplomatic clearances have been obtained.

There was no immediate clarification of where the Communist batteries were located. But eight miles is well within range of standard anti-aircraft guns of a type used by U.S. forces as far back as World War II.

Adlai Accused Of Bad Manners

JOHANNESBURG, June 12 (P)—Adlai Stevenson today described South Africa's segregation policies as neither practical nor wise. A government official, in turn, declared Stevenson was guilty of "discourtesy and lack of good manners."

Stevenson, the unsuccessful Democratic presidential nominee talked to reporters as he wound up a week's business visit in South Africa. He had conferred also with government officials, including Prime Minister J. G. Strijdom.

Stevenson said European and non-European races in South Africa are "interdependent—one for labor and the other for employment—and in such a society peaceful cooperation is, I think, our only hope."

The Illinois visitor said he did not question "the good faith of the authorities for their concern for the well-being of natives" and cited improvement in housing conditions since he came here two years ago.

State Legislators Ask Probe Of River Drinking, Gambling

BALTIMORE, June 12 (P)—Com- Chesapeake Bay excursion boat to mitees of the Maryland House and Senate asked today for a legis- lative investigation of Potomac River drinking and gambling es- tablishments in State waters just off Virginia's shores.

The unanimous action came at a meeting of the joint Senate and House intergovernmental coopera- tion committees.

They asked Senate President Louis L. Goldstein to set them up as a special subcommittee of the Legislative Council, which he heads and which acts as a screen- ing and investigative arm of the General Assembly between ses- sions.

In a letter to Goldstein, the in- tergovernmental cooperation unit members asked that they be ap- pointed "to study and determine the problem that now exists be- tween the State of Maryland and the State of Virginia with refer- ence to the serving of alcoholic beverages and gambling off the Potomac shores of Virginia."

Devoted Negro Valet Presents Friends To Ike

WASHINGTON, June 12 (P)—If ever a man was happy and proud, John Moaney was today in pre- senting his 67-year-old mother and a group of friends to President Eisenhower.

Moaney is the President's devo- ted Negro valet. He has served him since the early days of World War II. When Eisenhower re- signed from the Army in 1952 to bid for the presidency, Moaney — then a sergeant — also re- signed. His five-star chief found it tough to give up his uniform after 40 years in the service.

But Moaney consoled him this way: "Don't mind, general. We'll get along all right."

And they have, of course. What's more, they are closer friends than ever.

Back at his White House desk after his weekend illness, Eisen- hower today received about 40 members of Moaney's African Methodist Episcopal Church. The church is in Copperville, Md., Moaney's home town.

With Mrs. Eisenhower at his side, the President greeted the group in his office. Then the party stepped outside to a patio to be photographed with the President, and the First Lady.

Moaney edged to the back row and had to be urged by the cam- eramen to move down alongside the President, who cheerfully made room for him.

Moaney's mother was down front, too, and Eisenhower called out to his valet's wife, Delores, to report front and center. She lives at the White House with Moaney.

"My goodness," said the Presi- dent, "we have to have Delores in this."

Moaney beamed with the kind of pride already reflected in his navy blue tie — one covered with tiny "I Like Ike" legends.

Stork Club Proprietor Faces Trial

NEW YORK, June 12 (P)—Sher- man Billingsley, beleaguered proprietor of the Stork Club, said to- day he pulled a gun on a house painter after the man threatened him. He added that he lives these days in fear of being murdered.

Nevertheless, Billingsley was or- dered to stand trial on a simple assault charge brought by the house painter Murray Beskin, 40. No date was set. At the same time, Billingsley was thwarted in a court effort to bring a similar countercharge against Beskin.

The Stork proprietor pulled the gun in ordering Beskin and a group of his fellow workmen off the stoop of Billingsley's E. 69th St. home yesterday.

Billingsley's E. 53rd St. supper club has been the target of a strike by waiters and kitchen help since Jan. 9. Both sides have ac- cused the other of violence.

Green Opposes 'Meat Axe Cut' In Aid Measure

WASHINGTON, June 12 (P)— Sen. Green (D-R) asked senators today to support the $3,637,000- 000 foreign aid bill in the interest of "the long-range safety and freedom of the United States."

Green, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, opened Senate debate on the measure with a plea against any "meat axe cut" in the name of economy. He said reductions should be based on "facts and not presumptions."

His committee cut administra- tion requests by 227 million dol- lars, Green said, to "compel tight- er administration of the program" and "more careful evaluation" of projects.

Green took a sideswipe at ad- ministration suggestions the Dem- ocratic Congress has been "daw- dling" on the President's legisla- tive program. He said his com- mittee set something of "a speed record" in acting on the bill, and noted it was May 25 that Congress President Eisenhower's for- eign aid message.

"Those elements in the admin- istration and the press which are so free in their criticism of Con- gress might bear in mind that delay is not always solely or even chiefly attributable to Congress," Green said.

Police Impound Boat For Illegal "Parking"

DETROIT, June 12 (P)— If Robert Luckik wants his 25-foot house- boat back he'll have to go to the Detroit Police Department's auto pound.

A crew of huffing and puffing policemen, aided by a police wrecker, impounded the boat yes- terday. Police said Luckik's float- ing home has been "parked" ille- gally off Waterworks Park since June 5.

British colony early yesterday for Japan after five days in port. She normally carries between 85 and 100 planes.

Peiping said the Hornet was ac- companied by four destroyers. Planes are customarily sent aloft for so-called top cover on such cruises as part of normal training and reconnaissance activities. But their patrol courses generally have kept U.S. warcraft more than eight miles from the Red China coast.

Five hours after leaving Hong Kong, Peiping said, the Hornet in- gested Red China waters.

At a position about 120 miles southwest of Swatow—about 200 miles across the South China Sea from Nationalist Formosa—four planes took off from the 33,100-ton Hornet and intruded into the Swa- tow area, the broadcast said, add- ing they were heavily attacked at once by anti-aircraft batteries, and one was hit.

Four Nationalist Chinese jets that crossed the same area just before also were fired upon, the broadcast said, and two were shot down into the sea south of Tahoo Island.

Russian Leaders Leave Finland Empty-Handed

HELSINKI, Finland, June 12 (P)— Russia's Communist leaders wound up their glad-handing tour of Finland today with a predic- tion that communism would con- quer the world without nuclear weapons. But they failed to win a single political concession from their close and militarily weak neighbors, the Finns.

Winding up their barnstorming good-will junket, Soviet Commu- nist boss Nikita S. Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin left this country by way of Tampere —Tammerfors, the site of the first meeting four decades ago between the two giants of Bolshevism, Len- in and Stalin.

"Ideological Weapon"

There Khrushchev announced to the world today that the Commu- nists intend to destroy world capi- talism with ideas rather than with nuclear weapons, and that "we are as sure of this as we are sure that the sun will rise tomorrow."

"All we have to do," said the spokesman for world communism, "is to grease our ideology with butter."

But the Finnish government long has favored disarmament in gen- eral and the banning of nuclear tests, so this was no departure from Finnish foreign policy.

The Manhattan
Baltimore Street at Liberty Cumberland

On The Line

by Bob Considine

NORFOLK, Va., June 12 (INS)—Fleet Week, feature of the 350th anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, has brought to Hampton Roads, off old Norfolk, the warships of 18 of the world's navies. They range from Spain's 4-masted barkentine schooner, Juan Sebastian De Elcano, a training ship, to the U.S.S. Saratoga, whose planes could level great inland cities with A-bombs.

Britain, whose navy once imposed a century of peace on the world, presents three ships—to our 82. France has sent six, the largest of the foreign contributions to a splendid show. The navies of Belgium, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Italy, The Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Turkey, Uruguay and Venezuela make up the rest.

The ships stood manfully along a 14-mile sealane for the big review by Secretary of Defense Charlie Wilson, who may not fill the role as an old salt but can be salty enough on occasion. He was accompanied by an array of newsmen who, with scant exception, don't know a mainsail from a Mothersill.

The naval show is at once inspiring and sad, for here we are engaged in an exercise that once was reserved for monarchs on treasured anniversaries and now is but a haunting salute to the past. In review array, side by side, the whole shebang and the more than 50,000 men aboard could have been cinderized by a couple of economy-sized H-bombs. (None have fallen, at last report.)

would have found it politically inexpedient to turn down an invitation to participate in the big naval show. There has been much grumbling and keen disappointment here in Norfolk about Mr. Eisenhower's reply to a series of requests that he put in an appearance.

Among old Navy people, there is as much sense of shock over this as there was among baseball addicts a few years ago when Ike chose to play golf at Burning Tree instead of throw out the first ball of the season at Griffith Stadium.

But be that as it may, Norfolk is the hottest port in the world tonight, not quite as hot as when Lord Dunmore bombarded and fired it on January 1, 1776, but sufficiently warm. Not since the height of World War II has it swarmed with more sailors, and never with as many. Speaking strange tongues—like Cockney. The city has gone all out to find things for them to do. There are 10,000 foreign sailors rolling in and out of the planned dances, circuses, receptions, concerts and the joints.

This is the first such review in half a century, and the third in our history. The 1907 show also took place here, with President Theodore Roosevelt in attendance. The combined battleships and sluggish monitors of that review, which attracted six nations, today could not equal the firepower of a single destroyer. The first of these reviews to which we have played host was staged in New York during the Columbian Exposition in 1893, drew nine nations (including a couple no longer on the map), and the bravos of President Cleveland.

Official Denies Jamestown Fete "Commercial"

"Delighted" Queen Plans To Attend

JAMESTOWN, Va., June 12 (AP)—An official of the Jamestown Festival denied today a British reporter's suggestion that the affair is being commercialized and said he is "delighted" Queen Elizabeth II will attend it.

Lewis A. McMurran, a member of the Virginia Legislature and chairman of the Virginia 350th Anniversary Commission, said "no commercial aspect" is involved. He said the celebration marking the arrival of the first permanent English settlers in the New World in 1607 is "completely historical and dignified."

McMurran was asked to comment on a dispatch in the London Daily Express which questioned whether the Queen should attend the festival.

Rene MacColl, Express staff member who recently returned from an assignment in Washington, said the Queen "will face two very tricky problems during her visit," which was formally announced yesterday.

MacColl said the Jamestown Festival looks like it is "being transformed into a commercial advertiser's dream." The British newspaperman said President Eisenhower had "snubbed the Jamestown celebrations by refusing to attend the international naval review" today at Hampton Roads, Va., near Jamestown.

"If Ike says no to Jamestown, should the Queen go?" asked MacColl.

The writer said the second problem was "a red-hot color problem. Negroes have been invited by the present governor of Virginia."

MacColl referred to Virginia's efforts to avoid school integration and to the fact that six Negroes were inadvertently invited to a Chamber of Commerce dinner in Richmond held in connection with the festival, only to have their invitations withdrawn.

"So," wrote MacColl, "if the Queen visits Virginia, she will find herself in the middle of a tough racial situation."

"Is that, perhaps, one of the reasons which has made this royal visit one of the most long-deliberated in recent diplomatic history?"

McMurran declined comment with respect to the Daily Express reporter's statement on the racial situation in Virginia, saying only that Negroes have been attending the festival by the thousands.

McMurran said the Queen's October visit is "singularly appropriate."

G-Men Smash 60 Slot Machines

BALTIMORE, June 12 (AP)—The jackpots on 60 slot machines were hit—but good—yesterday as federal agents used a 45-ton crane to smash the devices.

The machines, estimated to be worth $60,000, were seized by the FBI in raids over the past several years.

They were ordered destroyed by Federal District Court because they were transported across state lines in violation of federal law.

U. S. Marshal Gerald F. Bracken oversaw the smash-up job at a Baltimore junk yard. A few deft drops by a crane of a 10,000-pound magnet flattened the devices.

Four deputy marshals then gathered up coins that fell from the machines. Uncle Sam was the winner of that jackpot.

The junkyard got the scrap in payment for use of its crane.

For Bracken it was mainly a spring housecleaning operation. More machines will be coming in, he said, and he needs the storage space.

Md. Fruit Crop Prospects Good

COLLEGE PARK, Md., June 12 (AP)—Orchardists in Western Maryland spent last week thinning early peaches and applying their second and third sprayings, with the fruit crop still looking good, the University of Maryland's extension service reported today.

"The 'June drop' for apples was about over, the weekly report said, but was just starting in peaches. The 17-year locust was reported in two or three orchards in a limited area."

The widespread rains of last weekend broke the drought in the southern areas, although the several Western Maryland counties remained dry in comparison with rainfall in the general area.

The rainfall brightened pasture prospects in most areas, and Southern Maryland farmers took advantage of the soil moisture to push the transplanting of tobacco, which was 55 per cent completed as of last Saturday.

On the Eastern Shore, truck crops were advancing well. Tomatoes were "bushing out" nicely and nearly all sweet corn was planted. However, the service reported the flea beetle was damaging potatoes, tomatoes, corn and snap beans in counties west of the bay.

Radio, TV Hailed By Church Leader

BALTIMORE, June 12 (AP)—A church leader today spoke out in support of radio and television and observed that "divine intervention is evident" in their development.

The Rev. James E. Chase, of Washington, associate director of the radio and television department of the Seventh-Day Adventists, told the annual Chesapeake conference that "radio and television are God-given instruments to combat the mammoth forces of evil at work today."

"These two great channels of contact with great masses of people are having a tremendous influence for Christian living."

The Seventh-Day Adventists sponsors the radio program, "Voice of Prophecy," over more than 800 stations in 20 languages, and the television program, "Faith for Today," on 165 stations.

UMW Raps NLRB's Baltimore Office

BALTIMORE, June 12 (AP)—The United Mine Workers, trying to organize tugboat crews in Baltimore Harbor, today accused the National Labor Relations Board's regional office here of playing the role of strikebreaker.

The accusation was made by Arthur G. Pilon, regional director of the UMW's District 50, after the NLRB ordered an election of mates and engineers Friday to try to settle a three-week-old partial tieup.

John A. Penello, NLRB regional director, has ordered the election to decide whether the mates and engineers want to be represented by the AFL-CIO Seafarers International Union or "no union."

The UMW cannot be on the ballot because it has not abided by the Taft-Hartley requirements in signing a non-Communist affidavit, UMW Chief John L. Lewis has consistently refused, saying he will not sign the statement until companies also meet the same requirement.

Pilon's statement referred to Penello's ruling that mates and engineers are not supervisory employees and therefore are eligible to vote.

Penello said he realized that his ruling was a reversal of past decisions, but he explained the change was made because of the change in the operation of tugboats.

Tugs now carry only about five men, since virtually all are diesel-powered, and mates and engineers merely carry out orders of the captain and have no supervisory responsibilities, as such.

Sailing Mayflower II Across Atlantic No Picnic

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—Sailing the 17th century style floating antique, Mayflower II, for 5,000 roundabout miles across the Atlantic was no Sunday School picnic. Even the captain felt seasick "a good deal of the time."

Writer Maitland A. Edey, who made the crossing as a crew member, tells what it was like in the current issue of Life Magazine. There were many moments of beauty and nostalgic drama, but they were mixed with much drudgery, inconvenience, dirt and tedium.

Skipper Alan Villiers, Edey wrote, "had no illusions about the ship he commanded, and he was frank about her imperfections. He had his quarters in the high narrow stern of the ship, and when ever there was any kind of sea running, the motion up there was excessive. It was like living in the top of an elm tree and it made him feel seasick a good deal of the time.

"This bloody ship," he would growl at breakfast whenever he had spent a particularly rough night in bed. "That bloody cabin of mine. It's the worst in the ship. Can't get out of bed without breakin' your bloody head, bustin' your flamin' shoulder. Never saw such a ship for things fallin'. Put them on the floor and still they fall."

It was cold in the northern latitudes when the Mayflower left England April 17, and the Mayflower II soon caught a fair wind and scooted southward for 11 days.

The 22 crewmen aboard ate their meals in the "Tiller Flat," a cramped, low-ceilinged room housing the steering mechanism. "It became a foul spot," Edey said. "All the dirt, slop, greasy water, stench from the galley and miasmas from the diesel generator seemed to collect there in a sink. And there they stayed. The Tiller Flat became slimmer day by day."

Things got better as the ship bore toward the tropics, where it picked up the trade winds for the southern route Atlantic crossing. The original Mayflower followed a route far to the north.

As soon as the weather turned warm, the crew took to eating meals on deck. Later, when it got really hot, the crew slept on deck as well.

All the ship's officers had licenses for square-rigged sailing vessels, a breed now as "rare as the whooping crane." For the others, the sounds and eccentricities of the anachronistic wooden ship took some getting used to.

"The noise was deafening," Edey said of his tiny cabin far forward, "only a few feet from where the waves were bouncing off the hull."

"Some sounded like explosions—booming, rockline, smacks of water. Others were ragged thunder rolls followed by prolonged hisses, gurgles and chuckles, slowly dying away to silence."

"But before the next wave could hit, the ship would roll and then would begin the sounds of protests from hull ad cargo: A symphony of creaks, groans, complaints, cracklings and ticking noises, rising louder and louder until it seemed as if every beam in the ship were splintering, every box and bale in the cargo about to burst its bonds and come crashing through the walls of our cubicle."

After awhile Edey got used to the noise.

Steering the square rigger was a difficult and strenuous task. In spite of its chunky appearance, the Mayflower easily fell off course. Then the helmsman had to spin the wheel desperately to check the swing.

All too often, until they gained experience, the helmsmen found themselves with the sails taken "aback." This meant the ship had swung so far the wind began blowing on the wrong side of the sails. Then it would start to drift backward, bringing a withering comment from the captain.

After it was caught in the trade winds, the Mayflower began making longer and longer daily runs, once clocking 164 miles in 24 hours.

But finally the steady winds began to fail and "our morale plummeted each noon when the day's run was announced: 43 miles, 29 miles, and on one awful day 11 miles."

On Sunday's the ship's company would dress in Pilgrim costumes and gather for prayers and a short talk from Capt. Villiers. "Sometimes this was on Pilgrim history, sometimes on early exploration. It was invariably interesting," Edey said.

GOP Record Is Stressed By R. K. Gray

A special assistant to the White House staff yesterday told some 200 Republican women of the Sixth Congressional District that port of the President's record in the rank and file of the Republic of fiscal integrity, he said. "Are you aware, or have you made of the accomplishments more important, have you made of the Eisenhower Administration your friends and neighbors? The speaker was Robert K. Gray, of the fact that interest in the administration inherited in 1953 amounts to seeking appointments by President to over $7 billion, or more than $10 billion, he spoke at the 10 per cent of the expenses of the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club, which was held for in our 1958 budget? Do you know that this is the last campaign, your friends know that this is the Democrats frequently charged the third balanced, surplus-producing that we Republicans had an audacious budget presented by this administration run by Madison Avenue hucksters," Mr. Gray says.

"Are you aware that in the last 12 million help but wish that this were more citizens for whom this government has an administration must provide both goods and services? During this same has an administration had so period the gross national product many achievements of which to increased by nearly 20 per cent, boast. And yet apparently, if we do you know of a family in America which, during the last four years, had both an increase in its size and in its income and still is operating on a lower budget? That is precisely what your government has done during a period of increased costs. With 12 million more people to provide for; with four million more under Social Security, with defense spending at an all-time high, $67 billion more in the gross national product, the President's 1958 budget is $10 billion less than Mr. Truman's budget of 1952.

"We Republicans are guilty of letting the nation take for granted its peace, prosperity and the integrity of this Administration. Peace is a precious thing which we have obtained at no little cost to be sure, but only after tremendous and constant effort. And we must not forget this. Prosperity is a tangible thing and we must not permit a grumbling sentiment to reign because every day does not top the previous all-time record that we have established the day before. The facts are that this nation has enjoyed throughout the whole of this administration a prosperity which surpasses that known by any civilization in the history of man. And we must not forget this either."

Mrs. Vaughn E. Richardson of Salisbury, president of the state federation, presided at the business meeting. There were reports of committees and club presidents in Allegany, Frederick, Garrett, Montgomery and Washington counties.

Among those at the speaker's table for the luncheon were Rep. and Mrs. DeWitt S. Hyde and Mrs. J. Glenn Beall, wife of Sen. Beall of Frostburg.

A talk on "Soroptimism" by Miss A. Olivia Nicoll, Washington, of Soroptimist International and governor of the South Atlantic Region, and a musical program featured the entertainment at the joint installation banquet of the Soroptimist Clubs of Tri-Towns, Keyser and Cumberland. It was held at the Ali Ghan Country Club, with the Cumberland Club as hostess. The Soroptimist colors of blue and gold were carried out in the decorations and programs.

Miss Olive M. Hurlburt extended the welcome and Mrs. Blanche Ridgway, vice president, Soroptimist Club of America, introduced the guests. Joseph Pasarelli sang the National Anthem, "Ave Maria," and "Because." Miss Eileen Sullivan sang "Serenade," and "If I Loved You." Miss Sally Maurey was accompanist and also played the "Moonlight Sonata." Dinner music was by Harry Little, Rev. Kilian Krings, O.F.M. Cap., offered the invocation and Rev. Maurice D. Robertson, the benediction. The flag salute was given by the group.

Officers were installed by Miss Nicoll. They are Thelma Wilson, Edith Lambert, Gladys Hamilton, Lenora Burns, Ann Kelly, Mazie Kitzmiller, Mary Willis, Pauline Whiteman, and Margaret Maybury of the Tri-Towns; Hope Wenner, Florance Griffin, Laura Grayson, Marie Daskal, Buenna Pollock, Elyse Clevenger, Madelyn Bazzle, Mary Umstot, Hazel Stanley, Ida Davidson, Keyser; Mrs. Ridgway, Maxine Doak, Dorothy Green, Clara Dougherty, Ruth Barnes, Fay Stillwagon, Helen Johnson, Alice DeHaven, May Tomlinson and Jeannette Bonig, Cumberland club.

Dancing concluded the evening with music by the Mellotones. The arrangements committee was composed of Dr. Rita Brinker, Mrs. DeHaven, Miss Hurlburt, Mrs. Stillwagon, Mrs. Bessie Hanks, Mrs. Ridgway and Mrs. Doak.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Johnson, 1214 Lafayette Avenue, their son, Vernon Johnson, and family of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Genevieve Murphy and daughter, Catherine Ann, 131 Arch Street, motored to Lock Haven, Pa., to visit the former's brother.

Two local residents, Mrs. James H. White, 512 Louisiana Avenue, and James Nelson Williams, Route 2, Box 306, have been named grand national advisors by Pillsbury Mills, Inc. for the Grand National Recipe and Baking contest. The former was a finalist in the No. 8 bakeoff, the latter in number four.

This year the contest will be held in Beverly Hills, California, October 14-15. Contest rules remain essentially the same as last year. There will be a section for brides and for teen-agers as in past years. A panel of leading home economists will judge the bakeoff.

Cumberland 4-H Club will meet at 7 tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Frances King, 408 Louisiana Avenue.

Wear sunglasses as conscientiously as you lubricate delicate, under-eye tissue. Eye-cream or oil applied at bedtime—with as few strokes as possible—should always belong to a correct beauty routine, and it's more important than ever in the summertime. A cotton-ball compress squeezed out in warm facial oil, needed only occasionally in winter, may be far more necessary for erasing wrinkles when the face is exposed to the sun. Lie down for five minutes with the compresses on your eyes to make this treatment three times as effective.

Cut Down Glare

Then whenever the sun is ablaze, wear glasses dark enough to cut down the glare. The best glasses have lenses large enough or curved enough to prevent light

The only member of the Maryland federation to receive such recognition, Mrs. Douglas is a past president of the state federation, District 1 and Cumberland Woman's Civic Club. She also served as treasurer of the state group and on various committees during the 15 years she has been active in federation work.

4-H Older Youth Camp To Be Held July 13-14

4-H weekend camp will be held July 13-14, Miss Mary Wise announced last evening. Sponsored by the Allegany and Garrett County Older Youth Groups, it will be held at Pleasant Valley from 1 p. m. Saturday until 4 p. m. Sunday.

Tentative plans call for organized sports, hikes, swimming, campfire, square dance and Sunday morning vespers. The deadline for reservations is July 1.

Allegany County Older Youth Group will meet at the extension office July 1 to complete plans.

Named For Contest

Two local residents, Mrs. James H. White, 512 Louisiana Avenue, and James Nelson Williams, Route 2, Box 306, have been named grand national advisors by Pillsbury Mills, Inc. for the Grand National Recipe and Baking contest. The former was a finalist in the No. 8 bakeoff, the latter in number four.

This year the contest will be held in Beverly Hills, California, October 14-15. Contest rules remain essentially the same as last year. There will be a section for brides and for teen-agers as in past years. A panel of leading home economists will judge the bakeoff.

Alumnae To Meet

The Catholic Girls Central High Alumnae Association will meet at 8 tonight at the social center. Members and friends will be entertained June 21 at the Cumberland Country Club. Dancing will be from 9:30 until 12:30 with music by the Townsmen.

Chase Wrinkles Through Dark-Colored Glasses

You may think you need dark glasses less than other girls do, because sunshine seldom really hurts your eyes. But don't be misled! You may feel the need of glasses less, only because you have a habit of squinting. Squinting may keep the sun out of your eyes almost enough, but it certainly will put ugly and old wrinkles around your eyes.

James Frantz Approved As Sheriff Of Garrett County

A successor has been chosen of his appointment as assessor for Paul W. Fisher as sheriff of the Garrett County Board of Commissioners.

He is James Frantz, who has been deputy sheriff for the past two years.

Cheston M. Browning Sr., chairman of the Garrett County Republican State Central Committee, said Frantz was the unanimous choice of the committee and State Sen. Clifford Friend.

The office of Governor McKeldin informed the Senator on Monday that Frantz' commission would arrive at the Garrett County Court House the latter part of this week, Browning said.

Sheriff Fisher sent his resignation to the governor the latter part of April after he learned

The appointment was to become effective June 1. Fisher, however, is serving as sheriff until Frantz' commission arrives.

Prior to becoming a deputy, Frantz operated a store in Friendsville, and earlier worked for the County Roads Department. He is a native of Friendsville.

Sheriff Fisher served as deputy under Sheriff Juniper Teats from 1946 to 1950 and was elected Teats' successor in 1950. He was re-elected sheriff in 1954 to serve a term expiring December 16, 1958. His successor will fill the unexpired term.

Sheriff Fisher is a native of the Cove section of Garrett County and went to Friendsville at the age of 16 to continue his schooling. Before becoming deputy sheriff in 1946 he worked on farms and as a truck driver and also operated a saw mill in the Friendsville section.

GRADUATES — Miss Diane Warden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Warden, 717 Washington Street, received a bachelor of science degree in home economics from Margaret Morrison School of Carnegie Institute of Technology. At Carnegie she was active in the Tarquins, was in the court of the Thistle Queen, and was a member of the yearbook staff. She was graduated from Allegany High School in 1952.

Three Employees Of Amcelle Get Bonds For Ideas

Three employees at the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation have been presented additional bond awards for ideas which have been accepted under the plant's suggestion system.

The men are John W. Harriman, extrusion manufacturing; Edwin C. Kubers, extrusion technical, and Junior O. Bishop, extrusion manufacturing. Their ideas, according to C. B. Tasker, secretary of the suggestion system, revealed careful thought, originality and ingenuity in promoting a better quality product, method of operation, reduction in costs, or improvement in working and safety conditions.

Harriman was the top award winner with 44 winning suggestions. He received a $100 bond as "top suggester" and five $25 bonds as "an extra bonus in addition to the cash value of his adopted suggestions." Harriman has won extra bonds for the past two years and has a grand total of 86 award-winning suggestions.

Bishop earned two extra $25 bonds for his adopted suggestions. This is the second consecutive year that he has won extra awards.

Kubers received two extra $25 bonds for winning suggestions. He has been a consistent winner since 1941 when he won the top award the first year the suggestion system was in operation. Four years ago he won the top award the second time, and over the years has collected on 284 adopted suggestions which have paid him $2,721 in awards and extra bonds.

The use of women's names to designate hurricanes has dramatized them in popular imagination.

NEW PASTOR — Rev. Harold Allen, formerly of Littleton, Colo., is the new pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Cresaptown. He succeeds Rev. William Stroup who has accepted a pastorate in Smethport, Pa. Rev. Mr. Allen, his wife and two daughters reside in the parsonage on McMullen Highway. The new pastor was honored with a reception which included dinner and entertainment.

Kelley Weighs Acceptance Of Liquor Post

Del. Estel C. Kelley is weighing the matter of accepting a six-year term on the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverage Commissioners.

Yesterday Del. Kelley said he had no comment to make at this time, but "might have around the first of next week."

Tuesday, the office of Attorney General C. Ferdinand Sybert informed Governor McKeldin's office in an informal opinion that under the law the liquor board must elect its own chairman.

Del. Kelley was appointed by Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin several weeks ago to succeed Walter C. Capper, whose term was expiring.

Del. Kelley has not qualified for the position. His commission has remained unclaimed in the office of the Allegany County clerk of court. He has until June 30 to pick it up.

The governor's office was asked by State Sen. Charles M. See, it is reported, to obtain a ruling on whether the governor's appointment was as chairman of the liquor board.

Del. Kelley failed to attend a meeting of the board June 4 at

City Issues Bid For Legion Meet

The Mayor and Council this week joined with the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce in urging the American Legion to hold its state convention here this year.

Mayor Roy W. Eves wrote the time and place committee of the Legion's Department of Maryland that Cumberland is known as the Queen City of the Alleghenies and is situated in mountainous country which is always a delight to visitors.

Hotel, motel and tourist home facilities are excellent, he added, and the city's reputation for hospitality and friendliness is outstanding.

Farmers May Seek Wheat Allotment

Farmers having land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for 1955, 1956 and 1957 may apply for a 1958 wheat acreage allotment, according to James H. Weimer, chairman of the Allegany County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

To be considered for an allotment on a farm on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of those years, a farmer must apply in writing to the County ASC office, 37 Washington Street, by July 1.

Requirements to be considered in approving an application are (1) extent to which the farmer's livelihood depends on his farming operations; (2) reason for not planting wheat on the farm in 1955, 1956 and 1957, and (3) allotments he may have on other farms.

Application forms may be obtained at the County ASC office.

The George Construction Company is building the new school under a $373,777 contract.

Trial By Jury As A Tool Of Justice

Although much English and American law procedure derives from Roman jurisprudence, the jury as an institution seems to have come to England, not from Rome, but from a system arising in medieval France. A dozen credible members of the community were called on to verify what was customary practice and (later) what were the facts of a case. From being witnesses the twelve developed into a body that passed judgment on testimony presented. In an age when sovereigns ruled arbitrarily the jury became a bulwark of defense against royal oppression. Blackstone called the jury system the "glory of the English law."

At the time of the Declaration of Independence over 150 crimes, many quite trivial, were still punishable by death. So it seemed fair enough that the prosecution should have to convince twelve good men and true before one of their neighbors could be subjected to harsh penalties.

However, as communities spread into large organisms where every man no longer knew every other, and as problems submitted to juries grew more complicated, trial by jury became widely questioned as an instrument of justice. In Great Britain the problem was met, at least in part, by giving judges greater power to guide or even influence juries, but in this country judge and jury remain almost as disconnected as when the Constitution was adopted.

Some defendants now waive their rights to a jury trial in the belief that they're more likely to get justice from a judge than from a jury of their peers. And some states allow certain minor court decisions to be made by a jury of less than 12 and/or decisions less than unanimous.

Ventures Ltd.

The new Secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, will take that position after resigning from Ventures Limited, a Canadian company, of which he has been president. This is a vast holding company, with tangible net worth of about $22,000,000 and which either owns or has a huge interest in a large number of other companies throughout the world.

Canada does not object to the cartel system of operations and it would be a question of legal definition rather than private opinion whether many of Canada's industries have been cartelized. There seems to be no objection to the cartel in capitalistic countries other than the United States. At any rate Ventures Limited is acknowledged to be one of the largest holding companies in the mining field. Its income derives from dividends paid by various companies in which it has made its investments.

Ventures Limited was chartered on January 27, 1938, with an original authorized capital of $10,000,000. The genius of the enterprise has undoubtedly been T. Lindsley, the chairman of its board of directors, who was born in the United States and came to Canada in 1937, as a geologist, and became interested in various mining properties which eventually became Ventures Limited. The indicated market value of the stock ownership in subsidiary and related companies of Ventures Limited is about $112,000,000.

In 1954, the various oil interests of Ventures Limited and Frohisher Limited, a subsidiary, were consolidated into Geoil Limited, a subsidiary of Frohisher Limited. (The use of numerous subsidiaries, piling tier upon tier, has become customary in oil countries to influence tax payments.) Ventures Limited owns about 1,356,000 shares in Geoil Limited of which R. B. Anderson was a Director. These interlocking directorates would indicate that these companies are all controlled by more or less the same interests, brought together by T. Lindsley, chairman of Ventures Limited. Geoil Limited operates not only in Canada but also in the United States, particularly in Louisiana, where it has substantial oil interests.

Ventures Limited, which is the controlling shareholder of Frohisher Limited and Geoil Limited, operates through its subsidiaries and related companies in Canada, Africa, South America and the United States. Geoil, for instance, has a 50 per cent interest in Trans Border Limited which owns the Williston Oil and Gas Limited which operates in the United States with great success.

It is interesting that this enormous Canadian enterprise found an American to be its president and that he replaces as Secretary of the Treasury. George Humphrey whose Mark Hanna Company also holds enormous mine properties in Canada. The economic relations between the two countries are important and perhaps interlocking to a greater degree than is generally assumed. Many financial companies and financial devices exist which bring the business of the two countries together. Furthermore, many Canadian enterprises are financed in London, and Canada may serve as a bridge between the London and New York market, providing financial organizations which facilitate investment but which are now forbidden in this country. The Toronto stock exchange, for instance, is a much freer institution than the New York stock exchange. Current studies of the invasion of Canadian capital into the United States would indicate that they are larger than has generally been assumed.

There has been so much mystery about the new Secretary of the Treasury that I thought that I might as well research Ventures Limited and introduce the gentleman properly to the taxpayer. A quiet businessman, working in Toronto since he ceased to be Deputy Secretary of Defense, he has not been as well known to the American people as a successor to Alexander Hamilton should be. His first political appointment was Secretary of the Navy, in the Eisenhower Administration, although he is a Democrat. His views on various subjects are not known at all.

For instance what are his views on the budget, tax-cuts, the evasion of taxes by corporations by means of tier subsidiaries scattered all over the world, etc., etc.? Anderson has not had anything to say on these matters at all and therefore he cannot be unpopular because no one knows what he is for or against. However, it is to be presumed that he cannot be too antagonistic to George Humphrey's position because no big businessman could be, and in due course, events will require statements on various subjects.

What Kind Of President Would Nixon Make?

WASHINGTON

When this is printed, President Eisenhower will no doubt be in fine form again, as everybody hopes. Yet his most recent illness has served to recall what everyone forgets between illnesses — that the President is, after all, mortal. And as in the case of his other illnesses, an unanswerable question is on many lips: "What kind of President would Nixon make?"

No one, of course, can predict how any human being might meet the enormous challenge of the Presidency. Yet, far more than a few years ago, there are now some rather solid bases for judging the kind of attitudes Vice-President Nixon would take to the Presidency.

All men change. But Nixon has changed more than most since the days when he went into politics by answering a newspaper advertisement — all those who know him well agree on that. He became a politician just as another young war veteran might have become an advertising man or an automobile salesman. Politics was for him, as business or a profession for others, a means of getting ahead.

As a professional politician, Nixon quickly developed a real talent for selling his product — in this case himself. He also developed a fine instinct for lunging for the political jugular of his opponents. And he got ahead very fast indeed.

Nixon is still a professional politician to the marrow of his bones. Politics is far and away his favorite subject of private conversation. But his prolonged exposure to the terrible responsibilities of the White House has taught him that politics, is a great deal more than just a means of getting ahead.

His experience on the rarefied political heights has also taught him other things. When he entered politics, he was very much a man of the Right — his ability to recite, with great earnestness, the current shibboleths of Right-wing Republicanism was one of the things that endeared him to the group of rich California Republicans who gave him his start.

Nixon is anything but a radical today. But his experience has taught him that the strictly orthodox form of Republicanism is, at least in a national sense, bad politics. The Nixon who warned last Sunday against using the abuses of the Beck type of union leader as an excuse for punitive labor legislation is not the Nixon of ten years ago. All in all, it would be surprising, if there were a sharp turn to the Right in domestic affairs in a Nixon Presidency. Indeed, any shift in domestic policy might well be in the opposite direction.

His exposure to the realities of the world situation, of which he knew next to nothing when he became Vice President, has also left its mark on Nixon. In the debates within the Administration on defense and foreign aid spending Nixon has almost always been on the side of security first, economy second. He has also been consistently on the side of bold action abroad.

It is generally forgotten now that in 1954 Nixon publicly advocated sending American forces to Indochina if necessary to save

Impossible to calibrate nuclear control by a convoluting system of quotas or premature registration of co-operative details.

Bill Hearst's old man told Runyon and me that such a chink of the intangibles was like winking at a lady in the dark. Nobody knows of your intentions but yourself.

Open skies openly arrived at are subject to the woolpack, the festoons and the thunder-heads of the cumulus strata. The limitation of tests makes the firmament a bomb-bay.

Such atomized affirmatives will be evaded oftener than price tags on smuggled cigars. Russia wants to bird's-eye everything west of the Mississippi. That's an insult to California smudge pots.

In return for this census of fissionated smog Moscow will give us three quick mezzanine looks at Siberia. You can get the same scenic effects reversing the dust bag of a vacuum cleaner.

The open skies deal works about even eleven. Proving the old Peruvian proverb that a fair exchange is a waste of everybody's time.

Caution Is Required In Use Of Pesticides

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

cause 100 to 150 deaths a year. This is approximately 8 per cent of all the fatalities associated with accidental poisoning, a small number considering the thousands who kill themselves more gradually with alcohol and tobacco.

Among the most dangerous pesticides are demeton, hydrogen cyanide, nicotine, parathion, par is green, TEPP, arsenous acid, sodium arsenate, strychnine, and thallium. Agents such as DDT, chlordane, and sodium flouride are less dangerous but still poisonous.

The risk depends upon a variety of factors beyond the toxicity of the individual drug. Much hinges upon whether the product is a liquid, a gas, an oily solution, or a wettable powder. How it is applied and the frequency, amount, and duration of exposure are equally important.

In agriculture, the danger occurs while the pesticide is being sprayed on the crops or during harvesting. The hazard in industry stems from the formulation or manufacture of the chemicals. The public health worker is endangered while using the products against disease carrying insects and rodents.

The problem also exists in the home. The housewife uses these chemicals to exterminate bugs and vermin. A risk is present when there are excessive residues on food, heavy concentrations during crop dusting, or in community fogging operations.

Poisoning is suspected if an exposed individual develops gastrointestinal disturbances, sweating, diarrhea, muscle weakness, confusion, and convulsions. When these symptoms occur, the physician should be called immediately, because oxygen and drugs such as atropine may be needed.

AIRLIFT WHOOPING COUGH Mrs. R. writes: Did you ever hear of taking a child up in a plane as a cure for whooping cough?

REPLY Yes This is an oldie and the practice is still popular in Europe. Long before planes were invented, parents took their whooping youngsters to the top of a nearby mountain. But Am-with obvious misgivings. "I rather like your sailor's blouse," he announced finally, "but do you think you have just the right coastline for it?"

American Iron Curtain Is Harder To Penetrate Than Russ Model

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Sen. Lyndon Johnson's statesmanlike proposal that we try out an exchange of television and other cultural projects with Russia focuses attention on whether Khrushchev is right or wrong about an American "iron curtain."

The Communist boss, when he faced the nation over CBS, claimed the United States had blocked cultural exchanges. He called for widespread cultural exchange, in brief the lifting of the "American iron curtain."

Careful investigation at the State Department indicates that Khrushchev is right.

The official policy of the United States, as announced by President Eisenhower at the Geneva summit conference, is people-to-people friendship behind the Iron Curtain. However, this policy is a long way from being carried out, and those responsible are partly the State Department, partly Congress for erecting red tape—especially fingerprinting.

Here are the facts: Within a month after Ike announced the people-to-people friendship policy in 1955, the Hutchinson (Kans.) News proposed an exchange of wheat farmers with Russia, similar to the exchange of Russian-American farmers which chiefly concentrated on the farm belt. The State Department said no.

In 1956, Rumania, another Iron Curtain country, asked to send an agricultural delegation to the United States. The State Department, after considerable palaver, admitted only one Rumanian farm expert. He wanted to come for 90 days. The State Department cut him down to 60 days.

Finally he came, toured the middle west, bought several million dollars' worth of seed corn and farm machinery, then asked to remain 30 days longer. The State Department refused. He departed immediately.

Yet the exchange of farmers in the summer of 1955 had resulted in acting Agriculture Minister Matskevich broadcasting over the Voice of America from Washington to tell the Russian people that the American people were their friends. The Soviet Government has been spending several million dollars a year to jam the Voice of America so such messages could not be heard. Yet a member of the Soviet Cabinet was permitted to say this over the Voice of America.

Fingerprinting Roadblock

Since then, the people-to-people friendship campaign has been in the hands of mustachioed William Lacey, a career diplomat who did an excellent job as Ambassador to Korea and is now trying to promote cultural exchange.

It took three days for this writer to persuade Mr. Lacey to answer his telephone, so it may not be easy for the Russians to reach him either. However, Mr. Lacey, when finally available, admitted that cultural exchange is not going too well with Russia. It is going better with Poland and the satellite countries.

Chief obstacle is fingerprinting. The Russians flatly refuse to come to the USA if they are to be fingerprinted. This, they say, is the sign of a police state. Exactly this, however, is required by Congress, and, although the State Department asked Congress to change the law, key Congressman Walter (D., Pa.) has been vigorously opposed.

The FBI, according to State Department officials, has been most cooperative, does not oppose USA-USSR cultural exchange as a danger to U. S. security.

Fingerprinting, however, has blocked the famed Moscow Ballet from visiting the U.S.; also the Moyseev Ensemble, a group of folk singers.

Eddie Dowling, well-known actor and producer, has gone to Moscow three times to arrange for the Moscow Ballet to come to Washington. Sol Hurok has been there twice, and Billy Rose has also negotiated for an American tour of the famous ballet. But the State Department has refused to waive fingerprinting, and the Moscow Ballet refuses to submit to what it calls the humiliation of police-state techniques.

State Department figures show that practically no students have been exchanged between the United States and Russia. On the other hand, some 17,000 students visited Russia from Europe and Asia last year, and about 100,000 tourists went there last summer. "Porgy and Bess" also toured Russia from the United States and was wildly acclaimed everywhere.

Unquestionably the Russian Iron Curtain has been partly lowered. The American curtain is much harder to penetrate.

Ike Saw Khrushchev

Newsman are mystified as to why press spokesman Jim Hagerty should have denied that President Eisenhower saw the Khrushchev television interview, when the President later said he did.

Here is what Hagerty said: "The President did not see the interview, but was aware of it."

Later, at his press conference, the President was asked whether the American Embassy in Moscow took a tape recording of the interview.

"Mr. Hagerty says we have it," the President replied. "I haven't seen it. All I have seen is what you saw on television."

Washington Pipeline

The doctors who warned the public last June that the President's stomach trouble was likely to recur were Dr. David Rutstein, head of the Harvard Medical School Department of Preventive Medicine; Dr. Samuel Gaines of the Polyclinic Hospital in New York; and several studies were also published to that effect by the Mayo Clinic and the New England Medical Journal. Dr. Ward Van Patter of Mayo's wrote "recurrence is found to be as high as 65 per cent." . . . "The percentage of recurrence is up to 50 per cent," said Dr. Gaines . . . "It often recurs within one year," said Dr. Rutstein . . . Most people don't know it, but Sen. Bill Knowland took quite a political licking in his home town of Oakland, Calif., the other day. Knowland and his family newspaper, the Oakland Tribune, strongly supported Ernest Rossi for the Oakland City Council, but was decisively beaten by Robert Osborne, an Oakland manufacturer. Osborne was backed by the Democrats and labor.

Where in this country does a woman securing a divorce get the best financial break? Most people say it is in California. Especially in Beverly Hills. However, a Detroit lawyer claims divorcees get the best financial breaks in his state. When you eat an apple do you peel it? If so, you may be making a mistake. Especially if your hair is thinning. Apple peel contains many of the important hair minerals. The same is true of the peels of cucumbers, carrots and radishes. That's what experts on the subject of hair growing maintain. I have always eaten apples with the peel on. Perhaps that is one of the reasons I have to get a haircut every week.

Dodgers Edge Braves, 11-9; Redlegs Lose To Bucs

Neal Drives Home 4 Runs In Victory

Brooklyn Ends Four Game Losing Streak; Both Tied For 2nd

BROOKLYN, June 12 (P)—Charlie Neal drove in four runs with a triple and home run tonight as the Brooklyn Dodgers ended their losing streak at four games with an 11-9 victory over the Milwaukee Braves which left both clubs tied for second place in the National League race.

The Brooks, who had scored only four runs in the skid, piled up a 9-1 lead in the first two innings, then barely managed to hang on as the Braves let loose with a three-home run barrage in the last two frames.

Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron belted home runs with none out in the ninth to chase reliever Ed Roebuck, who won his first of the year, but Clem Labine then came on to shut off the rally by retiring Joe Adcock, Bobby Thomson and Billy Bruton.

Mathews' homer, a two-run shot was his 10th of the year and the 200th of his career, a Brave record. Wally Berger held the old Boston - Milwaukee club record with 199.

Unbeaten Texas Fighter Recalls Time He Ran Away From A Fight

CUT-AND-SHOOT, Tex. (P)—Here on the fringe of Texas' "Big Thicket" lies this little community with the funny name and a tremendous fighter named Roy Harris.

Roy, a 23-year-old elementary school teacher, got his first taste of national renown recently when he beat Bob Baker of Pittsburgh. Rugged Roy also has beaten Joey Rowan and Charlie Norkus.

As an amateur in 83 bouts, Harris lost only nine. He was state Golden Gloves champion four times and in 1954 reached the semi-finals of the Tournament of Champions at Chicago only to withdraw because of illness.

He turned professional April 26, 1955, and won his first 20 fights.

Harris, popular in Texas rings, drew a gate of $26,000—largest in Houston's history—for the Baker fight.

He's a tough, hard-driving fighter but through all his battles has remained virtually unscratched. "I've been very lucky," he says.

Roy has been boxing most of his life. His father, Henry Harris Sr., was a Texas heavyweight in the 1920s. And Roy's older brother, Tobie, wanted to be a boxer. He badgered Roy into a ring partner. Roy was against it but his father and an uncle talked to active duty.

"got Tobie and me down in the woods and tied the gloves on us. I ran for home but they caught me. They shoved us together and I put on my gloves to push Tobie away. One of my gloves accidentally caught him and knocked him down."

Three years later, when he was 13, Roy took on an opponent outside the family. He took a beating but wasn't discouraged. Harris' boxing activities may be curtailed somewhat for the next six months. A second lieutenant in an Army Reserve unit at nearby Huntsville, he has been in but his father and an uncle talked to active duty.

Frostburg Elks Beat Rotary, 13-6

Helped by pitcher Bob Porterfield's wild throw and balk, the Cleveland Indians scored five runs, four unearned, in the second inning tonight and defeated the Boston Red Sox 6-1. Don Mossi absorbed the loss.

At Midland Bill Richmond had a double and two singles and Rodney Johnson a single and a two-bagger to pace the Lonacoring assault. Ray Tagg with a double and single and Bubbles Thompson with a two-bagger and single topped the Midland batters. Charley Winters drove in three runs for the losers with a two-base hit and a sacrifice fly.

Wright's Crossing took a 4-0 lead at Zihlman, but saw the home team rally for three tallies in the third and tie the score in the seventh when Buck Winfield walked, stole second and came home on the catcher's overthrow at second.

Umpire John Flaherty ejected Jim Piersall in the third inning when the Red Sox outfielder protested a called first strike. Gene Stephens replaced him at bat and finished the game in centerfield.

Rocky Colavito led off the Tribe's big second inning with a single, and after Gene Woodling fouled out, Roger Maris singled. Then on a tap by Chico Carrasquel, Porterfield threw wild to second and Colavito scored.

Hal Naragon walked to fill the bases and on a balk, Maris scored. Mossi grounded for the second out, but Al Smith singled two runs home, and Bob Avila doubled to score Smith.

Barton Scores Sixth Twilight League Triumph

Barton's league-leading tossers scored their sixth straight triumph in the Twilight Baseball League yesterday by walloping Finzel's last-place club, 22-2 at Barton.

The victors pounded out 19 hits and scored 14 runs in a big fifth inning. Finzel obtained only four hits off Bill Johnson who went all the way on the mound for Barton.

Lonacoring scored all its runs in the first three innings in defeating Midland, 11-5, behind Jerry Lancaster's slants. Bubbles Thompson relieved Whip Wilson in the fourth inning and pitched scoreless ball the final four frames in a losing cause for Midland.

In the third contest in the six-team circuit Wright's Crossing and Zihlman battled to a tie in the ninth 4-4 deadlock that was called because of darkness after the second extra frame at Zihlman.

Jack Parker went the distance on the hill for Wright's Crossing while Buck Winfield and Bob Deffenbaugh shared mound duties for Zihlman.

Tom Warnick, Bill Smith, Johnny Johnson, Jim Wilson all collected a two-bagger and a single for Barton's undefeated nine. Bill Johnson struck out six in going the route for the victors. Zihlman contributed seven errors to aid the Barton cause as J. Hannel absorbed the loss.

At Midland Bill Richmond had a double and two singles and Rodney Johnson a single and a two-bagger to pace the Lonacoring assault. Ray Tagg with a double and single and Bubbles Thompson with a two-bagger and single topped the Midland batters. Charley Winters drove in three runs for the losers with a two-base hit and a sacrifice fly.

Wright's Crossing took a 4-0 lead at Zihlman, but saw the home team rally for three tallies in the third and tie the score in the seventh when Buck Winfield walked, stole second and came home on the catcher's overthrow at second.

Umpire John Flaherty ejected Jim Piersall in the third inning when the Red Sox outfielder protested a called first strike. Gene Stephens replaced him at bat and finished the game in centerfield.

Rocky Colavito led off the Tribe's big second inning with a single, and after Gene Woodling fouled out, Roger Maris singled. Then on a tap by Chico Carrasquel, Porterfield threw wild to second and Colavito scored.

Hal Naragon walked to fill the bases and on a balk, Maris scored. Mossi grounded for the second out, but Al Smith singled two runs home, and Bob Avila doubled to score Smith.

Middlecoff To Open Defense Of National Open Today

Cary Almost Forgotten In Classy Field

Hogan And Snead Among Favorites; 8 Champs Enter

By WILL GRIMSLEY

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 12 (P)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, fidgety Memphis dentist who can't find his oldtime urge, opens defense of his National Open golf championship tomorrow as a forgotten outsider in a field of the game's greatest stars.

The doctor, in a pronounced slump, picks Masters champion Doug Ford as the man most likely to snatch his crown. But around rain-swept Inverness two old and familiar names rang out loudest of all: Ben Hogan and Sam Snead.

Hogan, 44, lean and fit and apparently hungry for a fifth Open championship which eluded even the immortal Bob Jones, is the sentimental favorite of the fans and practical choice of the hardened pros.

Legion Of Supporters

Snead, 45, putting Inverness' glassy greens as if his blade was equipped with radar, has his usual legion of supporters who contend—probably correctly—that there's never been a greater hitter of the ball.

Sam, who has blown a half dozen Opens and been runnerup in four, plays the Inverness club course as if he owns it, whacking out of the rough when his tee shots wander and making the course's 6,919 yards look half the length.

The course has been considerably toughened since Ted Ray of Scotland won here in 1929, the last foreigner and at 43 the oldest ever to turn the trick, and since Billy Burke beat George Von Elm in a record 72-hole playoff in 1931.

There have been two days of rain, and showers are predicted again late tomorrow or early Friday. But it should be dry and cloudy when Emilio Miantuz of Medinah, Ill. hits the first ball off the tee at 8 a.m. (EST) tomorrow.

162 Golfers Entered

There are 129 professionals and 33 amateurs in the list who will play Thursday and Friday for places in the Saturday windup. The field will be reduced to the low 50 shooters and ties for the last day.

Besides Middlecoff, there are even past Open champions who are entries dating back to Gene Sarazen, who made his debut here in 1920 at the age of 18. Others are Lloyd Mangrum (1946), Lew Worsham (1947), Hogan (1948-50-51-53), Julius Boros (1952, Ed Fugol (1954) and Jack Fleck (1955).

The list includes Peter Thomson of Australia, three-time British Open champion; Ford, the Masters titleholder; PGA champion Jack Burke Jr., and Harvie Ward, Jr., national amateur champion who is sweating out a year's probation for expense irregularities.

Felch Fighting Swimming Injury Which Paralyzed Him

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 12 (P)—Almost completely paralyzed for three years, Allen "Bull" Felch is still fighting with the courage, patience and confidence that no football game ever demanded of him.

The former University of Kentucky fullback was injured in June, 1955, diving into a lake while swimming. The accident occurred four days before his discharge was due from the Army.

Now a patient at Veterans Hospital here, Felch says "I've got a lot—a whole lot—to be thankful for."

Felch says his wife has "been my greatest comfort."

"A lot of people drop by to see me at home and write to me. And that television and radio . . . I keep up with all the games the Wildcats play that way, all the other sports, and other programs."

The Felchs are living in Lexington. A $10,000 grant from the government helped to buy the house.

Mays Is Hero In N.Y. Win

Belts 3-Run Homer, Scores On Error

NEW YORK, June 12 (P)—Willie Mays did it almost all by himself today, accounting for all New York Giants runs in a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs. After his 11th homer with two men on tied the score in the sixth, Mays walked, moved to second on a force play, stole third and raced home on catcher Cal Neuman's wild throw in the last of the ninth.

Red Schoendienst opened the ninth with a single and Mays walked. Trying to sacrifice, Ossie Virgil forced Schoendienst at third. After Gail Harris flied out, Mays stole third and came home when Neuman's bad throw sailed past third.

The Cubs opened up an early lead but Mays tied it up with his 11th homer in the sixth after a walk to Daryl Spencer and Bobby Morgan's fumble of Schoendienst's grounder with two out.

Successive singles by Ernie Banks, Walt Moryn and Chuck Tanner gave the Cubs a run in the first after two were out.

Bob Speake's single, Moryn's double, a single by Tanner and an infield out produced two more Chicago runs off Curt Barclay in the third.

Jim Bunning Hurls Detroit To 4-2 Victory

3 Homers Feature Baltimore Loss

DETROIT, June 12 (P)—The Detroit Tigers blasted Art Ceccarelli for three runs—two of them on J. W. Porter's upper deck home run—in the first inning and made them stand up for a 4-2 triumph today over the Baltimore Orioles.

Lanky Jim Bunning spaced six hits and registered his fifth consecutive victory and his sixth in seven decisions. The only damaging blows off the big righthander were Bob Nieman's sixth home run leading off in the second inning and Bob Boyd's second round tripper of the season, leading off in the sixth.

Bunning struck out seven and didn't walk a batter, ending the contest by getting big Gus Triandos on a swinging third strike.

Charlie Maxwell singled with one out in the first and came all the way home when Al Kaline's blooper fell into short right field for a double. Porter followed with a drive into the upper left field seats.

Kaline's second double, leading off the sixth, started the final Detroit run. He came home on catcher Red Wilson's two-out double to center.

This was the only run off Baltimore relievers Mike Fornieles and Skinny Brown. Ceccarelli was lifted in the second inning for a pinch hitter.

Maple Inn, Corgs To Play For Lead In County Loop

Maple Inn will play at Corriganville at 6:15 p.m. today for the lead in the County Softball League. The two clubs have identical 6-2 records for the season.

Jerry O'Baker is expected to be the rubber for the Maple Inn crew while either Art Raygor or Joe Raygor will fire them plateward for Corriganville.

In yesterday's only game scheduled at Kennell's Mill Burkey's won by forfeit over Stringtown when the latter failed to field a team. The two squads then played an exhibition which Burkey's won, 12-2.

Today at Stringtown, Fossilville, Pa., will play an exhibition game with the County League team.

Gorman Got Thrill

KANSAS CITY (P)—Tom Gorman, star relief pitcher with the Kansas City Athletics, says his big mound thrill came in 1952 when he was pitching for the New York Yankees and they beat the Cleveland Indians.

Says Gorman: "I entered the game with the bases filled and leading 3-2. I fanned a man, the next batter grounded out to send in the tying run, and I fanned the third batter. I then pitched the eighth and ninth and we won. It was my first victory in the majors."

Pastrano Seeks Rematch With Unbeaten Harris

HOUSTON, Tex., June 12 (P)—Willie Pastrano wants a quick rematch with Roy Harris, the undefeated newcomer from the East Texas Piney Woods, but armed forces have first choice on services of both heavyweight contenders.

Both boxers are to begin two weeks of summer military training as reservists this weekend.

The 190-pound Harris ignored blood from two cuts in late rounds last night while taking a unanimous 10-round decision from Pastrano, 21, the No. 3 heavyweight then played an exhibition which Pastrano's won, 12-2.

Pastrano's contract gave him the option for a rematch within 60 days in Miami Beach, Fla., in the event of an upset by the Texan. Angelo Dundee, Pastrano's manager, indicated the option will be exercised as quickly as possible.

Game Is Postponed

The Hot Stove League contest between the Rotary Club and the Lions at Penn Avenue field last night was postponed because of wet grounds. The game will be rescheduled at a later date.

Big Klu Taken Off Redlegs' Disabled List

PITTSBURGH, June 12 (P)—Ted Kluszewski, the man of mighty muscles and a slipped disc, was taken off the disabled list today in the hope that his steadiness and home run bat might lift the wavering Cincinnati Redlegs back into winning ways.

The club needs Klu badly, for it had lost 7 of the last 10 games before playing Pittsburgh tonight, and had a measly .180 batting average for that time.

To stay under the 25-player limit and to make room for Klu, General Manager Gabe Paul sold outfielder Art Schult to Washington in the American League. Paul said he got considerably more for Schult than the $10,000 waiver price.

Mosner 4 and 3 and Mort Schaidt Jr., downed Jack A. Moberly 1 up in 19 holes.

John Kelly Bids $1½ Million For Wheeling Downs Track

Sale Would End Lias Tax Entanglement

Hearing On Auction Bid To Be Held On June 21, Court Says

WHEELING, W. Va., June 12 (AP)—A representative of Philadelphia millionaire John B. Kelly bid $1½ million today for the Wheeling Downs race track.

Federal Judge Harry E. Watkins set a hearing for June 21 when he will decide whether the bid is accepted or rejected. Approval of the sale would mean a big cut in the $3,300,000 tax bill owed the government by William G. (Big Bill) Lias, admitted big-time bootlegger of the prohibition era.

The Kelly bid actually was the only legitimate one received at auction of the half-mile horse track in West Virginia's Northern Panhandle.

May Be "Upset Bid"

Judge Watkins said there was still a possibility of an "upset bid" between now and June 21, but he said such a figure would have to be 10 per cent higher than the Kelly offering—at least $1,650,000.

The judge also said such a bidder would be required to explain why he was not present at today's auction. Watkins said earlier the balance of the purchase price must be paid in cash within 10 days.

Don Levine, a graduate of nearby Bethany College and son-in-law of Kelly, gave Federal Receiver Carl O. Schmidt—who served as auctioneer—a certified check for $100,000 required to back up the bid.

Kelly is the father of former motion picture star Grace Kelly, now the Princess of Monaco.

Levine did not indicate whether individuals other than Kelly were behind the bid, telling newsmen only that plans call for the track to be operated by "a corporation."

Schmidt had said last night, however, that two Philadelphia businessmen were interested in buying the track—Kelly and Matthew O. McCloskey.

Lias Was Acquitted

Lias was acquitted of criminal charges of income tax evasion in 1949. The federal government later brought civil proceedings against him for the years 1942-48 and the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review a U.S. Tax Court judgment against Lias.

Sale of the track will deduct $900,000 from the three million dollars on income tax claims against rotund Lias who tips the scales at 400 pounds plus.

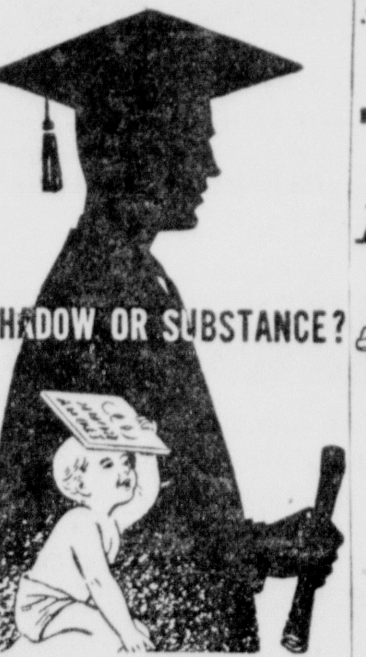

19 Countries Enter British Open Tourney

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 12 (AP)—Golfers from 19 countries, including the professional champions of the United States and Great Britain, will play in the British Open at St. Andrews July 1-5.

Peter Thomson of Melbourne will try to win his fourth consecutive title. He plays first on the Old Course, regarded as the birthplace of golf.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, defending his U. S. Open title at Toledo, will go for his first British championship starting on St. Andrews' New Course.

Each player in the 295-man field will play a qualifying round over the Old Course and a round over the adjoining New Course July 1 and 2. Not more than 100 will qualify to play in the 72-hole tournament proper which begins July 3.

Minor Little Loop Planned

Frostburg Circuit To Open June 17

FROSTBURG, June 12—Beginning June 17 the board of directors of the Frostburg Little Baseball League will expand their program to include a minor league, consisting of five teams, in addition to the five teams of the regular league.

The teams of this minor league will be coached by experienced players from Beall High School and from Frostburg State Teacher College.

The league has been organized to give youngsters of 8 to 10 years of age, who lack sufficient experience to qualify for the regular squads, an opportunity to play ball and develop their knowledge and skill to the point where they may land a berth on the "A" teams.

The minor league games will begin at 5 p.m. at Little League Park. The regular league games will start at 6:30 p.m. after June 17.

Arthur T. "Tad" Bond, president of the league, stated this morning that a number of parents of boys now playing on the teams do not support the league by attending the games.

"If we are interested in boys and their development why not match our words with our deeds and back up our boys and the men who are giving their time, energy and even money to this program instituted for your boys?" he stated.

Hard-Hitting Priest

NAPOLÉON, N. D. (AP)—The Strasburg town baseball team boasts one of the hardest-hitting priests around.

Rev. Casper Bonifas of nearby Hague, playing with Strasburg in a Beaver Valley Amateur League contest, unleashed two home runs.

Strasburg, however, lost 18-10 to Napoleon.

NEW YORK, June 12 (INS)—figure horses battling for the lead and then suddenly another nag has shoved up into contention.

That's what the Cardinals have done. For a long time everybody was talking about the Dodgers, Redlegs and Braves. Then the Phils suddenly appeared and now the Cardinals are in the thick of the fight.

All of them have had surprisingly good pitching and it is probable that the one which gets the most of the bestest will take it all.

A casual glance at the averages will make you wonder why the Phils are in the running for they are next to last in both fielding and hitting. But a closer look will show you that they have scored more runs than any other club except the Reds and Cardinals.

The Reds and Cardinals are virtually tied in hitting and the Reds are second only to the Braves in fielding. The big surprise has been the

No club appears strong enough to break away from the pack and it seems certain that the one with the most stamina for the long haul will pick up all the marbles.

Work Starts Remodeling Old Opera House

Piedmont Structure Will Be Rebuilt

PIEDMONT — The work of remodeling the former city building (known as the Piedmont Opera House) which Abe Feldstein purchased several months ago has begun.

Feldstein states he plans to convert the two-story brick building from a two-story building into a four story structure by lowering the ceilings. The second story which was used as a theater also had a balcony in the rear. He states he plans to have space on the first floor for four business places. The building faces Ashfield and Green Street which are adjoined to Third Street.

The work is being done by A. G. Clark, contractor of Westernport and will probably take most of the summer to complete.

Joseph Dick who operates a grocery store in the building on Ashfield Street will move the latter part of the month to the former American Steam Laundry Building on Ashfield Street, which Feldstein also recently purchased. Dick plans to occupy one of the store rooms in the former city building when remodeling is completed.

Arthur Peters who operated a newsstand in the former city building moved to Main Street, Westernport, last month.

should be allowed in Russia if we don't allow theirs here?

This also provided a very distinguished and knowledgeable group insofar as any American is knowledgeable about Soviet meanings and intentions. The talk was dispassionate, lucid and remarkably in accord. In fact, just from the point of view of a TV show, there was perhaps a little too much agreement. Most significant was the comment about the lone omission cut from the film when it was shown in Russia and Red China, the part where Khrushchev admitted possible differences between Communist leaders and the people — a surprisingly non-Marxist lapse.

At the time of the interview, some quarters suggested that CBS should have followed it directly with a program of analysis

Lewis once sat on his father's knee while the father sang "Sonny Boy" at him, an act they did together twenty years ago which must have been pretty corny even then. After that, in case there was still a dry eye in the house — and I think there were quite a few — Lewis repeated the bit with his own son, setting back the honorable practice of nepotism by about a hundred years. Then Lewis imitated Sammy Davis doing imitations which is carrying derivation almost beyond legal limits.

I still think Jerry Lewis is a talented and funny man but I think he needs wise counsel in the worst way.

Parkway Plans Debated At Senate Hearing

Most Agree Area Should Be Preserved

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP)—A bill to create a Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Historical Park ran into opposition on economic and sporting grounds at a congressional hearing today.

But it picked up equally strong support from conservation and wild life groups as a step toward maintaining intact an important scenic area whose history goes back to early days of the nation.

The proposal was described by Conrad Wirth, director of the National Park Service, as "the best possible opportunity to preserve an extraordinary scenic and valuable wild land recreation area close to our great centers of population."

Parkway Included
But, Charles A. Robinson Jr., speaking for the National Rural Electric Cooperative Assn., said it was a proposed swap of "functional benefits" of Potomac River development for a "non-functional aesthetic benefit."

The canal reaches from Georgetown—once an independent town but now part of Washington—along the Potomac River for 185 miles to Cumberland, climbing 605 feet en route.

Sen. Beall (R-Md) in a bill now before the Senate Interior Committee, proposes to maintain the area as an historical park, and to authorize building a 20-mile long parkway near the western end through the scenic Town Ridge area.

Agree On Purpose
Generally all witnesses before the committee today at a hearing on Beall's bill—identical to a bill introduced in the House by Rep. Hyde (R-Md)—agreed with the overall purpose of preserving the area.

But they didn't by any means agree on methods. Much opposition was centered on the parkway section between Maryland Route 51 and Woodmont on grounds that it would create a barrier between parts of Maryland and the Potomac River, border of the state.

Spokesmen for sportsmen's organizations insisted that the parkway as well as the park as a whole would act to bar them from hunting in the Potomac River bottomlands.

They argued that no final action should be taken until the park service and Maryland fish and game and conservation agencies spell out regulations to protect hunting and fishing rights.

Insists On Details
Opponents of the proposal included Joseph Kaylor, director of the State Department of Forests and Parks. He argued the bill is "not explicit enough" on details. He said his commission is "defending the interests of the people of Maryland" in urging that details be "pinpointed" before final action is taken.

Little mention was made during the hearing of once proposed plans for a parkway the length of the canal. Park Service Director Wirth referred to that plan at one point, saying a study showed that a parkway would destroy much of the old canal's scenic and historic values and the park service has recommended against it.

Referring to "concern among sportsmen of Western Maryland as to whether the proposed park would cut them off from hunting" along the Potomac, Wirth said:

No Hunting Now
"Hunting would not be permitted within the proposed park and is not permitted on the canal property now. Nevertheless, the bill contains provisions that will make it possible for the state and federal governments cooperatively to select the lands that are most needed for the historical park and the lands that are most needed for hunting and game propagation purposes."

"The lands essential to hunting would not be included in the park. The large islands in the river which reportedly are favored hunting places likewise are not scheduled for inclusion in the park."

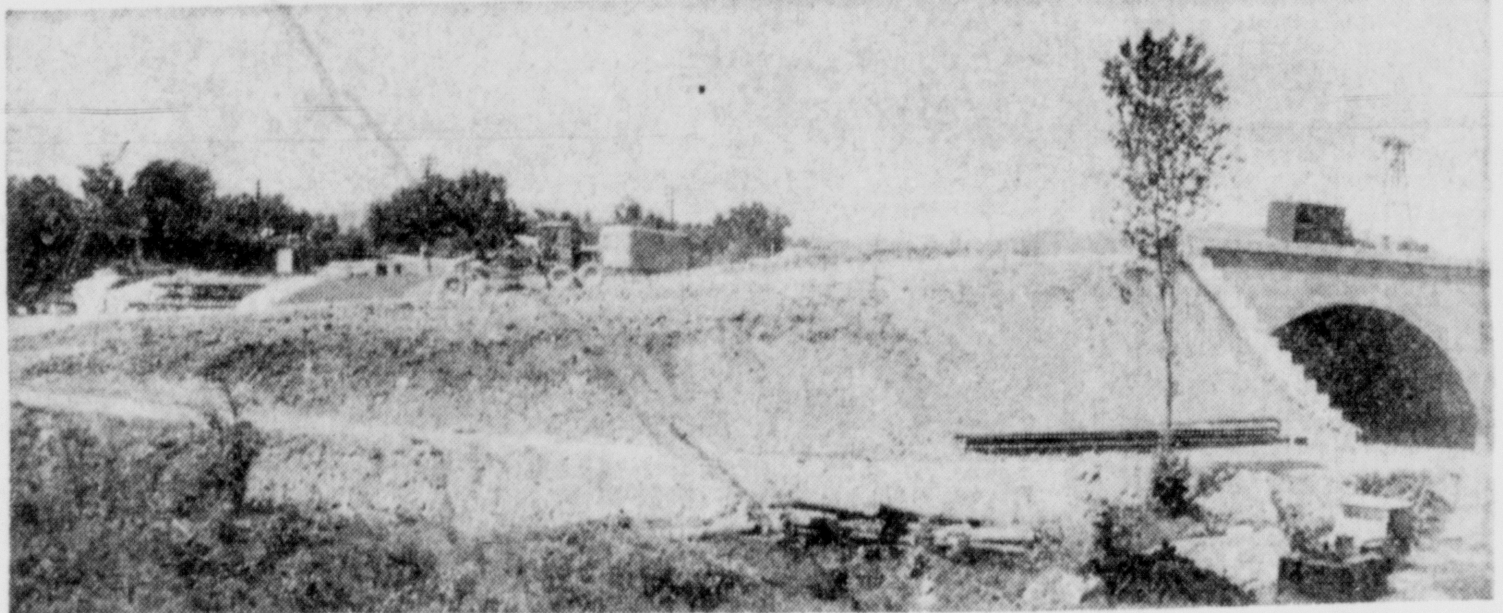

Wirth said the bill also would provide for granting rights of way over, through or under canal property to assure municipalities and industry the privilege of reasonable access to the Potomac River and the use of its waters.

The Potomac waters were the subject of arguments against the proposed park by Robinson of the Rural Electric Association. He said a survey now is being made of needs for water supplies, electric power and pollution control. Until a plan to carry out those purposes is completed, he argued, the plans for the historic park should be held up.

Cites Proposed Dam
Robinson said that the river bend area has been suggested as a site for a reservoir that would provide water supplies and power. That dam, he said, probably would inundate a large part of the proposed park area.

Anthony Smith of the C & O Canal Assn., who had endorsed the park bill, declared that despite disagreements among conservationists and sportsmen on details of the park development, they would "rise as one man if there is a proposal to build a high dam in this river."

Ralph Taylor, representing the Washington County Council for Conservation (33 clubs in the county) oppose the bill) said the park and parkway would set up a barrier cutting off part of Maryland from hunting and other uses of the Potomac. "When you put a barrier there you might as well give the river to West Virginia."

Girl Scouts Plan Camp Open House On Sunday

Guided Tours Begin At 2 P. M.

An invitation is extended to all interested people by the Cumberland Girl Scout Council to visit the new Girl Scout camp near Flintstone Sunday, according to Mrs. George Miller, council president.

Open house is planned at the camp from 2 to 4 p. m.

State Continues Probe Of Liquor Violations Here

An investigation is being continued by the state's attorney's office in connection with possible liquor law violations involving three local girls.

At a hearing yesterday morning before Trial Magistrate Donald W. Mason on charges of three motor violations, Miss Betty Lou Pryor, 19, of Apartment 5-E, Jane Frazier Village, said she purchased a number of mixed drinks at two local establishments before being arrested Tuesday night on Baltimore Street.

Miss Shirley Ziler, 20, of 32 West First Street, and Miss Doris Jane Ralston, 19, rear of 427 Virginia Avenue, testified they were with Miss Pryor and also purchased mixed drinks at the establishments.

Miss Pryor was arrested at the intersection of Baltimore and Liberty streets by Officer Paul Penrod. She was charged with reckless driving, operating a motor vehicle without a license and unlawful use of a motor vehicle.

Robert C. Morgan, 25, Mt. Savage, and Harry Little, were occupants of another car involved in the incident. Magistrate Mason did not rule on the motor case, but turned the three girls and the two men over to the state's attorney's office for questioning in the liquor violations.

Statements were taken from the three girls yesterday by Edwin R. Lilya, county investigator, and they will be brought to the state's attorney's office this morning for additional questioning.

Equity Suits Filed
Two equity suits were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bills of complaint were titled Dorothy E. Miller vs. James O. Miller and Bertha Fisher Griffith vs. Harry Wagner Griffith.

Two equity suits were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bills of complaint were titled Dorothy E. Miller vs. James O. Miller and Bertha Fisher Griffith vs. Harry Wagner Griffith.

Sunday, with members of the camp committee and a number of Girl Scouts serving as hostesses and guides. Groups will be taken on a tour of the huge tract.

Improvements, projects planned and points of interest will be designated and outlined. At least one unit of tents, where the girls will camp this summer will be in place, and the dining hall, storage and recreation quarters, water system and other improvements will be noted.

A suggestion box will be available and all who visit the camp are invited to submit a suggestion for a name. The council has decided that the camp will not be officially named until the Girl Scouts and their parents and friends have an opportunity to see it.

On Saturday, men and boys who have been doing much of the work on a volunteer basis will be at the camp to complete several chores. Any interested men and boys who want to donate a few hours of their time and energy Saturday will be welcome.

The camp committee will hold a dinner meeting at the camp Saturday at 6 p. m. This meeting will replace the regularly scheduled Friday night session.

Miss Olive Hurlburt, scout executive, said yesterday that reservations for summer camping are just about closed. There are four periods of camping allotted for this summer, each able to accommodate 52 girls, camping in three units. Three of these periods are already closed. There are a few reservations still available for the 12-day period from July 28 to August 9, she said. Unless local girls avail themselves of these immediately, they will be assigned to scouts from other councils who have applied if there are vacancies.

The regular board meeting of the Cumberland Council will be held at the Girl Scout House Monday at 7:30 p. m., Mrs. Miller said.

Injured In Fall
Leslie H. Cheshire, 61, Romney, W. Va., was admitted to Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon with a fractured right arm he sustained in a fall from a ladder while painting.

Contact Basins Put Through Running Tests

New contact basins at the Lake Gordon filtration plant are being put through their paces by a factory representative, according to Water Commissioner William J. Edwards.

He said the Inflico firm's engineer is building up a slurry to test the equipment.

The slurry is a gelatinous mass formed by the action of chemicals placed in water during the filtration process to collect fine particles.

When the blanket is built up, the machinery in the contact basin causes the slurry to settle toward the bottom of the huge concrete basins, collecting sediment as water flows upwards and toward the filter beds.

Mr. Edwards said the contact basins will make important contributions to the city's already excellent water supply, since they will provide clearer water and at the same time save water—extending the capacity of Lakes Koon and Gordon—since less water will be needed to wash filter beds.

The contact basins will remove all but the smallest particles of sediment, leaving to the filter beds only the job of catching particles of microscopic size.

Marine Unit To Train At Air Station

Members of the Marine Reserve Sixth Special Infantry Company will depart Saturday for 15 days of annual field training at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N. C.

Major Patsy Algieri, commander of the local unit, said training would be conducted on security, infantry tactics, weapons, weapons qualification firing and physical education during the training period.

The annual field training is scheduled in order for the men to put into practice the training they received at the weekly drill meetings conducted at the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center on McKaig's Hill.

Each year the unit takes 15 days of active duty to train at Marine Corps bases located in the eastern part of the United States. Training sites in the past few years include Parris Island, S. C.; Camp Lejeune, N. C.; Little Creek, Va., and Naval Ammunition Depot, Crane, Ind.

Taking part in this year's training will be men from the tri-state area as well as members of the satellite unit of the local company at Frederick.

Major Algieri also said openings will be available again for six months trainees upon return of the unit's return from Cherry Point.

Ava Is Top Butterfat Producer Of Association

Ava is the queen of all of the 883 cows in the Potomac Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association for May.

The monthly report of Wheeler W. Arnold and Harry E. Miller, association supervisors, shows that Ava, a grade Holstein owned by C. W. Brinker of Springfield, W. Va., was the May butterfat leader with 107 pounds of butterfat in 2,050 pounds of milk.

In second place was Gundel Matchless Echo, a registered Holstein belonging to John T. Mason of Cresaptown with 99 pounds of butterfat in 2,680 pounds of May milk. Third was No. 26, a registered Ayrshire belonging to Harry J. Barton of Pinto, who had 95 pounds of butterfat in 1,580 pounds of milk.

Twelve cows from ten different farms were on the honor roll of top butterfat producers because of a three-way tie for tenth place.

SRC Signs Pacts For 11 Federal Aid Projects

Reorganized Board Ends Year In Office

BALTIMORE, June 12 (AP)—The State Roads Commission today signed agreements with the Federal government for about $966,000 in Federal highway aid money.

The agreements, covering 11 projects, were signed at a routine commission meeting. The meeting ended the first year in office for members of the reorganized board—Chairman Robert O. Bonnell, Edgar T. Bennett and John J. McMullen.

The commission was reorganized by Gov. McKeldin following severe criticism of its handling of the 12-year roads program, rights-of-way awards for the Baltimore Harbor tunnel and other matters. Bennett was the only hold-over member.

In other work today, the commission awarded one large contract, programmed $104,650 in Federal aid secondary funds requested by Anne Arundel County, and awarded a contest prize.

Bridges Included

The Federal aid agreements included $540,000 for preliminary engineering studies on U.S. 40 from Frederick to Wagners Cross Roads and $232,740 for a bridge over the Washington Circumferential Highway on the Ardmore - Ardwick Road.

Also included was $160,800 for a U.S. 40 bridge over Washington and Antietam streets in Hagerstown. Work on the bridges has already begun. The other agreements were for projects of less than $10,000. The State must put up 10 per cent of the cost of the federal aid projects.

J. O. and C. M. Stuart, Inc., of Washington, was awarded a contract for construction of the Washington National Pike from Tucker Lane to east of Grosvenor Lane on its low bid of $2,177,373. The bids were opened some time ago. Chairman Bonnell said the bid was one-half of a percent lower than the State's estimate of $2,188,748.

Prize Is Awarded

At the request of the Anne Arundel County commissioners, $104,650 in Federal aid secondary funds was programmed for engineering and right of way costs of a project for construction of a bridge over South River at Riva. The cost of the bridge was estimated at $850,000, with the county planning to ask further Federal aid later.

The name of a winner in a contest to choose a "Baltimore Harbor Tunnel Trail Blazer" was received by the commission from the judges—Henry A. Barnes, Baltimore City traffic director, Ole Singstad, tunnel designer, and Wilbur Van Sant, Baltimore advertising executive.

The $250 prize went to Robert J. Kuhn of Cockeysville, a commercial artist working for the Air Research and Development Command. Kuhn's suggested highway sign marking the way to the harbor tunnel was chosen from 564 entries.

Mrs. Van Horn's Estate Valued At Half-Million

BALTIMORE, June 12 (AP)—Mrs. Bernice Van Horn left an estate of more than a half million dollars, it was estimated today after her will was filed in Orphans Court. She willed most of it to her husband, Robert J. Van Horn.

Mrs. Van Horn was found slain last June 2. Van Horn has been indicted on a murder charge.

Van Horn was named executor in the will, with Charles H. Buck listed as a substitute trustee. The court granted Buck's request that the Maryland Trust Co. be named co-administrator with him to collect and protect the estate.

The will, dated April 1955, said that if Van Horn did not survive her, a half of her main estate would go to the Jesuit Seminary Fund and the other half to the Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church.

It also directed that her jewelry be sold and the proceeds be turned over to Brown Memorial Church.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP—Raymond Douglas Houck, son of Mrs. Coyle Houck and the late Raymond D. Houck of Mt. Savage, has been awarded a three-year scholarship to the University of Chicago Law School upon graduation magna cum laude from Hampden - Sydney College Monday with a bachelor of arts degree. He is a 1953 graduate of Allegany High School. Attending the commencement were his mother and his sister, Miss Rosemarie Houck, and John L. Towler.

South End S. A. Commanders To Be Transferred

Lt., Mrs. McConnel Are Named To Post

Lt. and Mrs. James Pappas, commanders of the South Cumberland Corps of the Salvation Army, are being transferred from here effective June 30, according to Capt. Daniel Biggs, commander of the Salvation Army here.

He said Lt. Pappas has not received official notice of the location of his next assignment. They will be succeeded in the South Cumberland post by Lt. and Mrs. Richard McConnel, both of Richmond, Va.

Capt. Biggs said Lt. and Mrs. McConnel graduated from the Salvation Army training college at Atlanta, Ga., on June 3, and will receive a brief vacation before assuming their duties here. The new corps commanders will hold their welcome service at the South Cumberland Corps on Sunday, July 7.

Lt. Pappas, who has held the rank of first lieutenant for a year, is a native of Fredericksburg, Va. He was commissioned in Atlanta in 1953 and has served in Clarksburg, assistant at the Citadel and at Moundsville, W. Va. He has been commander of the corps here since January, 1956.

Lt. Pappas married the former Lt. Dolores Dawson, of Clarksburg, last June.

County Issues Five Permits For Dwellings

Five permits for new dwellings, which the builders estimate will cost a total of about $26,500, have been issued this week by the Allegany County assessing department.

Most costly of the new homes will be constructed by John A. Kelly, 702 Hill Top Drive, on Walker Road in Election District 29 in LaVale. The 48 by 24 foot house will be of brick construction.

Fred E. O'Baker obtained a permit for construction of a one-story concrete block dwelling in Election District 13 at Mt. Savage for an estimated $5,000.

Bertha S. Miller was issued a permit for construction of a $4,000 brick dwelling in Election District 20 at Ellerslie.

Another residential building permit was issued to Dale A. Preston for a four-room dwelling which he reports will be built for $1,000 in Election District 9 near Barton.

Eldyl Twigg obtained a permit to build a four-room house in Election District 20 at Corriganville which he said will cost only $500. County employees reported Mr. Twigg already owns the necessary materials.

Petition Count Is At Halfway Mark

Preliminary work on the counting of petitions calling for a referendum on a proposed tax limitation increase was about half done yesterday.

The augmented staff of the City Registration Office had checked and typed on cards names, addresses and data on about half of the 5,263 names signed to petitions.

The count got under way a week ago under procedure set up for the count of petitions asking a referendum on a proposed $500,000 Urban Development bond issue.

Answer Fire Alarm

Central Fire Company was called to the home of Mrs. James Kienhofer, 236 North Mechanic Street, yesterday at 3:16 p. m. after a hot water heater broke and filled the basement of the home with steam. Firemen said the only damage was to the tank.

Bicycle Permits Will Be Issued Here Next Week

Inspection Set At Police Headquarters

Bicycle permits will be issued next week by the Cumberland Police Department, according to Chief R. Emmett Flynn.

The permits will be issued next Monday through Friday from 10 a. m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p. m. in the basement of Police Headquarters.

A fee of 25 cents will be charged for the new permits, which will be needed July 1.

Chief Flynn said all persons riding bicycles after July 1 must have permits.

The tags will not be issued, he said, unless bicycles are equipped with the proper warning device and brakes are in first-class condition. Siren whistles, he warned, are not allowed.

For night riding, proper lights must be mounted on the front and rear of bicycles.

The police department has confiscated 12 bicycles since April 16, when Chief Flynn ordered strict enforcement of rules requiring proper lighting for bikes used at night, saying the practice endangers the life of the bike riders and all others using the streets.

The vehicles may be kept for up to 60 days for violation of the rule.

Chief Flynn pointed out that inspectors must be able to read the serial numbers on the frames of the bicycles.

Johnson Again Named To Lead Paperworkers

Wilbur "Farmer" Johnson yesterday was elected to his fifth term as president of Luke Local 576, United Paperworkers of America, AFL-CIO, at the annual election which attracted 1,200 members out of about 1,500 eligibles.

The voting was conducted at the Devon Club in Luke and the ballots were counted last night at the union's hall in Westernport.

Results of the election: For president Wilbur Johnson 793, Ed Byron Green 371. For vice president (three elected)—Charles Butler 811, Leroy Imperio 806, George Pattison 761, Harold Warnick 697.

For sergeant-at-arms—Larry Mayhew 760. For recording secretary—Eugene Dawson 599, Joe Kyle 536. For financial secretary—Miss Olive Metcalf 925.

For trustee—Wilbur Wagner 950, for chaplain—Melvin Washington 962.

Re-elected with the president were his three vice presidents and the sergeant-at-arms. Other officers are new. They will assume their duties at the first meeting in July.

Youth Fined On Driving Charge

Robert Francis Newcomer, 19, Fort Ashby, W. Va., was fined $10 and costs in Trial Magistrates Court yesterday for driving a car on a 60-day card, unaccompanied by a licensed driver.

The charge was filed against Newcomer as a result of an investigation of an accident in Constitution Park last Monday, in which Robert G. Harvey, 17, of 8 Marion Street, was fatally injured.

Police said Harvey was driving the car when it hit two trees. The investigation showed Newcomer had been driving the car some time before the accident, but not when it crashed. The boy's father, John Newcomer, who owned the car, was charged with permitting an unlicensed driver to operate it, but Magistrate Donald W. Mason dismissed that charge.

Senior Citizens Will Hold Picnic

The Senior Citizens Club will hold a picnic in Constitution Park on June 27, according to Mrs. Eva Hogan, advisor.

Members will meet at 4 p. m. at the Elks Home, where transportation to the park will be available.

Mrs. Hogan said the Recreation Department sponsored club will not meet today, as members decided to meet only once a month during the summer.
